The petitioner a Dhoby was G.O. 10th Oct. 1882. refused retiring allowance on the grounds that a Dhoby's service is not pensionable.
He urges that a relation of his got a pension as a Dhoby.
This is so: see G.O. 30th August 1881 no 791 a case not put up by the Pension Dept. when the order on the petitioner's case was passed. ~~The last point made~~

~~is~~ It is noteworthy that the retiring allowance granted to petitioner's relation was passed "dis" without any consideration of the question whether or not a Dhoby's service is pensionable. This question was raised, considered & settled by "orders" in the case of the petitioner and it is thought Erdu then 14 Apl/83 - P 302
