TESTIMONIALS.

THE bearer of this RAMACHENDRUM, served as a Writer in this Office for the space of nine months to my perfect satisfaction, and he now leaves as he has got a better appointment.

MADRAS COURT OF SMALL
CAUSES, 21st June 1852.

G. E. COWER.

This is to certify that S. RAMACHENDRUM was entertained as 3rd Writer in the Medical Stores about four months since, and that I have found him diligent and attentive to his duties.

FORT ST. GEORGE, MEDICAL STOREKEEPER'S OFFICE,
1st October 1852.

A. HUNTER, M. D.,
Acting Medical Storekeeper.

This is to certify that S. RAMACHENDRUM, was entertained as a Writer in the Medical Store Department on the 25th June 1852, and during the period I was Medical Storekeeper, I found him diligent, active and zealous in the performance of his duties; and he conducted himself to my perfect satisfaction in every respect.

FORT ST. GEORGE, MEDICAL STOREKEEPER'S OFFICE, 21st November 1853. T. O'NEILL, Medical Storekeeper.

I have now been upwards of one year in charge of the Medical Stores, and during this period, I have several times employed the bearer S. RAMACHENDRUM in copying out Scientific papers and on some occasions in working out calculations in decimals. I have found him remarkably sharp and intelligent, as well as diligent and active and zealous in the performance of his ordinary duties.

FORT ST. GEORGE, MEDICAL STOREKEEPER'S OFFICE, 15th October 1855. J. MAYER, Medical Storekeeper.

I hereby certify that since I have been Medical Storekeeper, I have never had any occasion to find fault with the bearer of this RAMACHENDRA NAYUDU, but on the contrary have had every reason to be perfectly satisfied, and I may add many times much pleased, by the diligence and industry displayed by him. I have also had many occasions of remarking his superior intelligence which, joined to his uniform good conduct, lead me to regret his leaving the Store's Office. I have accepted his resignation, because feeling much interested in his future welfare and success in life, I would not stand in the way of his obtaining a situation which I believe will be for his advantage.

MADRAS, 2nd August 1856. J. MAYER, Medical Storekeeper.

FORT SAINT GEORGE, ACCOUNTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, 5th March 1860. R. P. HARRISON, Accountant General.

Sydapett RAMACHENDRA NAYUDU asks me for a certificate as to his qualifications and conduct during the time he was acting under my direction in the Office of the Accountant General, Madras, and afterwards in that of the Inspector General of Madras (Mofussil) Police.

RAMACHENDRUM gave so much reason to be satisfied with respect to his abilities, conduct, and perseverance, when I was (as Principal Assistant) in charge of the establishment of the Accountant General at Madras, that I had no hesitation and much pleasure in recommending his appointment by Mr. Robinson, as Head Accountant in the Office in Madras of the Inspector General of Police.

The instructions which I gave to RAMACHENDRUM have been intelligently observed and carefully carried out, and the books general and analytical are all that can be desired and will certainly compare advantageously with any books of account that I have seen in India either in Madras or Bengal. The books now exhibit in a concise and comprehensive form the transactions of the Force from June 1858, and they are not in arrear—it is upwards of eighteen months since I saw them or have had any reference made to me on the subject of them, and the examination of them which I have now made confirms me in the opinion that RAMACHENDRUM not only thoroughly understands his work but diligently performs it.

I would willingly and confidently have promoted him to the post of Native Assistant or Manager of the Office had such an appointment been sanctioned as proposed."

(Signed) W. ROBINSON,

19th August 1869. late Inspector General of Police.

I can thoroughly endorse all that Mr. Robinson has said having had many opportunities of observing RAMACHENDRA NAIDU's merits and abilities during the period referred to since I assumed charge of the Police Department in December 1867. RAMACHENDRA NAIDU has fully maintained his previous high character as a public servant.

Inspector General of Police.

RAMACHENDRA NAYUDU has, during the 2 years I have officiated as Inspector General, most fully maintained the high position he had before arrived at as above recorded by Mr. Robinson and Colonel Hearn. I consider him an exceptionally, able, zealous, and efficient official. His conduct of the duties of his office has been entirely to my satisfaction.

To

HIS EXCELLENCY THE HONORABLE WILLIAM ROBINSON, C.S.I., Governor of Fort Saint George.

The humble Memorial of S. RAMACHENDRA NAYUDU, Chief Clerk and Manager in the Chief Office of the Inspector-General of Police, Madras.

HUMBLY SHEWETH,—That His Excellency's Memorialist is a public servant of 24 years' standing, and has rendered faithful and excellent services for nearly 15 years in the Police Department, being now employed as Chief Native Head (more or less in similar capacity of an Uncovenanted Native Assistant in very responsible and important a branch of Public Service), in the Chief Office of the Inspector-General of Police on Rupees 250 per mensem. His Excellency is already personally aware how the Memorialist has worked while the Police Department was yet in an infant state, and what turmoils of life he has undergone in the organization of so important a department as the Police. No pains were spared both day and night in the arduous task of introduction of systematic work and method, and in co-operating with His Excellency in the Department as Chief Native Ministerial Officer. Having had to deal with details of more than 35 lakhs of Rupees annually sanctioned for Police Department expenditure, the Memorialist with diligence and heartfelt zeal has performed his onerous duties in such a manner as very much contributed to save lakhs to Government, which otherwise would have become an amalgamated expenditure. In the early stages of Police administration the difficulties struggled against in moulding into adapted shape all crude matters connected with financial accounts, stores and general correspondence, &c., are well known to His Excellency himself, by long experience in the department. The Memorialist, though placed in such discouraging circumstances, was found quite equal to his work, and he surmounted them all with great fortitude and presence of mind necessary for the occasion.

2. The Memorialist need not dilate on the subject of his official career, and it would suffice to mention here that he by his unmixed zeal and constant as well as diligent steadiness, has not only earned the reputation due to him as an excellent public servant, but also obtained, in token of His Excellency's approbation, (while Inspector-General of Police) gradual promotions from Rupees 100 to Rupees 125, 150, 175, and ultimately to Rs. 250. The enclosed testimonials, and especially that recorded by His Excellency, speak for themselves in support of statements made here.

3. Advancement in public life is looked upon as a prima facie reward by approved servants, and the highest that could be bestowed on the Memorialist as far as the very limited office establishment is concerned, has been given him, viz., Rupees 250 a-month. But under recent special orders of Government the salary of certain 1st-class Inspectors has been raised from Rupees 215 to Rupees 350 as Chief Inspectors, which is certainly a very great encouragement to the Mofussil Police employes. There is nothing similar to it in the Chief Office to maintain the former dignity of the Memorialist's post as Chief Native Head, having also among other duties to control the finances in detail of 21 Police Districts—nor is there any prospect of reaching the point in token of the Memorialist's excellent services unless it pleases His Excellency, who knows him and nature of his work, in person to place on Government record the Memorialist's services as a special commendation in recognition of his past official career, as has been done in cases of other employes in various departments of public service, or grant some other boon he may be considered worthy of.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

4. The public functions entrusted to the Memorialist are in nature and responsibility somewhat similar to those of Head Sheristadar in the Revenue Board Office, though comparatively on a small scale, the Chief Office being considered as a Police Board, if the Memorialist may so express it. Such distinguished Public Servants of this Presidency have been well rewarded by Government in commendation and recognition for their specially approved services. Landed estates (Shrotriums, Moottahs, &c.,) and full bonus pensions with even hereditary rights and the like, have been granted them. Instances on Government records are multifarious.

5. Under the above circumstances, the Memorialist most respectfully prays that his faithful services may be so placed on Government records as may be deemed fit by His Excellency, and grant the boon solicited in token of recognition of his services as an encouragement to him that he may hope to reap some benefit from public purse as he may be considered deserving of at present, and eventually become entitled to, (i.e., at the time of retiring from public service.)

For which act of kindness, as in duty bound, the Memorialist shall ever pray.

MADRAS,
20th May 1875. (Signed) S. RAMACHENDRA NAYUDU,
Chief Clerk and Manager,
Chief Office of the Inspector-General of Police.

Referred to the Inspector-General of Police for report.

No. 166. From Lieut.-Colonel C. S. HEARN, Inspector-General of Police, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 19th June 1875, No. 3086.

With reference to your endorsement, dated 25th ultimo, on a memorial from S. Ramachendra Naidu, Chief Clerk and Manager of the Office of the Inspector-General of Police, I have the honor to state that the memorialist is, in my opinion, most highly deserving of the recognition he seeks of his long and faithful service in the Police Department. The amount of salary (Rupees 250) which he receives is far less than that attached to offices of perhaps less importance in other departments (vide paragraph 14 of my letter embodied in Proceedings of Government, Judicial Department, No. 56, of the 11th January 1869), and I shall be very glad if the Government should feel able to increase his salary to Rupees 350 per mensem with a further increase of Rupees 50 per mensem on his completing eighteen years' service in the Police Department. The increase could be met, if necessary, from savings on the Budget Estimate, though it is doubtful if it could be met within the grant for the current year.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 23rd August 1875.

No. 167. ORDER THEREON, 23rd August 1875, No. 1861.

The Governor in Council approves the proposal of the Inspector-General of Police to increase the pay of S. Ramachendra Naidu, Chief Clerk and Manager of his office, from Rupees 250 to Rupees 350 per mensem for the present, and to Rupees 400 on his completing eighteen years' service in the Police Department, and directs that the sanction of the Government of India be solicited for the same.

No. 108. Read the following letter from A. P. HOWELL, Esq., M.A., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Police), to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort William, 16th December 1875, No. 355:—

I am directed to acknowledge your letter, No. 2157, dated the 6th October last, relating to the recommendation that the salary (Rupees 250 per mensem) of the Chief Clerk and Manager of the Office of the Inspector-General of Police, Madras, may be raised to Rupees 350 per mensem for the present, and to Rupees 400 per mensem when he completes eighteen years' service in the department.

2. In reply, I am to observe that as the pay of that appointment in Bengal, where the work is, it is believed, heavier than in Madras, is Rupees 350 per mensem; in the North-West Provinces Rupees 250, and in the Punjab Rupees 300, the Government of India are of opinion that Rupees 300 per mensem should suffice in Madras. This charge which will be provincial is accordingly sanctioned.

No. 109. ORDER THEREON, 27th December 1875, No. 2642.

Communicated to the Inspector-General of Police, and to the Accountant-General.

2. The rate of Rupees 300 is sanctioned for immediate adoption in the case of the present Chief Clerk.

2. That His Excellency's ¹⁷Memorialist is a public servant of 31 years standing of which nearly a quarter century has been spent in the Police Department as chief clerk (Ministerial head in the office of the Inspector General of Police. Commenced as a Summons Writer on a low pay of Rs 15 in the Madras Court of Small Causes, he (your Memorialist) has obtained the present dignified position as Manager by his diligence, steady habits and business, talents and unimpeached honest public life. His long standing in the Department without merited promotion to which he is really entitled is not due to any want of exertion on his part nor to any lack of recommendation on the part of his immediate superiors. He was first

3. Had he been fortunate enough to secure a place in that grade he would no doubt have by this time risen to one of those coveted grades yielding higher emoluments. Subsequently in the year 1871 a small promotion of Rs 75 was given him in order that he might be induced to stick up to the Department with hopes of further encouragement for good service seeing that his services could not be well dispensed with at the time for the good of the service. In 1875 his pay as Manager of the Chief Office was recommended to be increased to Rs 400 - ultimately. Vide Inspector General's letter recorded in L. O. N^o 1861 dated 23rd August 1875. J. D. Unfortunately for your Memorialist the Government of India fixed the limit of his salary as Manager at Rs 300 only which he continues to draw discouraged as he is for want of a further chance of promotion in his present grade though though he is fully merited to receive it.

Had he been allowed to draw the additional Rs. 100 at least as a personal allowance as in the case of several other similarly situated in this and other Departments of Public Service after 18 years service in the Police Department as proposed by Colonel Hearn and recommended by the Madras Government (vide G.O. No. 1841 of 1875. quoted above), it would have been something toward his benefit and he would have secured about Rs 6000 thereby by this time.

4. Now time has arrived for the Memorialist to retire from the Public Service, aged nearly 55 years as he is and becoming infirmed by the long & faithful and arduous services incessantly rendered to the Department. They offer now of a post of higher emoluments in consideration of his past services and his abilities should certainly be loathsome to him. Your Memorialist need not enlarge.

enlarge upon his past career in the scale of public life. His first Memorial to Government dated 24 May 1875 embodied in L.O.
N. 1861 of 1875 above explains fully the special circumstances of his case which were fully endorsed on by the Honorable Sir William Robinson, the then Governor of Fort St George. The work your Memo-rialist rendered to the State in connection with the Police in its infant state of organization, the troubles he was put to in arranging and shaping the current matters to the desired end to help that gentleman when Inspector General of Police and the presence of mind with which your Memorialist attended to his important, arduous and responsible duties whenever called upon both night and day are quite enough to prove the statements made in this Memorial.
But for his (Memorialist's) discretion and hard work loss would have been lost

lost to Government.

5. Under these special circumstances of your Memorialist's case and in recognition of his excellent service and of the high character he has borne from the beginning, he prays that he may be granted the full bonus pension as solicited for meritorious service he has rendered to the State. Precedents are not wanting on the records of Government. Vide G.O. N. 208 dated 9th July 1869, Pension Department.

6. The enclosed are Testimonials of the Memorialist which speak for themselves as to his high character and merits &c.

7. For which act of kindness, as in duty bound, the Memorialist shall ever pray.

19th Augt/69. / Sig of W. Robinson
Late Insp. Genl of Police

I can thoroughly endorse all that Mr Robinson has said, having had many opportunities of observing Ramachendra Vaidoo's merits and abilities during the period referred to. Since I assumed charge of the Police Department in December 1867. Ramachendra Vaidoo has fully maintained his previous high character as a Public Servant.

30th Jan'y/72. / Signed C. S. Hearn
Insp. Genl of Police

Ramachendra Vaidoo has during the two years I have officiated as Inspector General most fully maintained the high position he had before arrived at, as above recorded by Mr Robinson & Col Hearn & consider him an exceptionally able zealous & efficient Officer.

S. G. M. 347 253

26TH APRIL 1883, No. 347, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From the Inspector-General of Police, dated 8th March 1883, No. 1201.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 31st March 1883, No. A.D.J.-516.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for thirty-one years, five months, and thirteen days, and that a retiring pension not exceeding Rs. 150 per mensem, equal to half average emoluments, is admissible under Sections 107, 109 (c), and 112 of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition. The calculations have been duly verified. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

2. In paragraph 4 of his letter, No. 1201, dated 8th March 1883, accompanying, the Inspector-General of Police recommends the grant to the applicant of a pension higher than the maximum rate admissible under the rules. The recommendation cannot be accepted, as it involves the grant of an indulgence not provided for by the rules of the Code. Should Government, however, be pleased to sanction the grant to the applicant of any pension higher than that recommended in the first paragraph of this report, it is respectfully pointed out that such grant will have to be reported to the Government of India for confirmation as required by Section 132 of the Code, and by G.I., No. 1624, dated 11th July 1881, Financial.

ORDER—dated 26th April 1883, No. 347, Pension.

Under Sections 107, 109 (c), and 112 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Sydapet Ramachendra Nayudu, late Manager, Chief Office of the Inspector-General of Police, Madras, a retiring pension of Rs. (150) one hundred and fifty per mensem, payable at Madras from 9th March 1883, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of thirty-one years, five months, and thirteen days.

2. With reference to his recommendation that a special pension should be granted to the applicant, the Inspector-General's attention is called to Sections 134 and 113 of the above Code and the foot-notes thereto. The Government see nothing in this case to justify exceptional treatment, which the Inspector-General was out of order in recommending.

CHIEF OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE
Madras, 8th March 1883.

From

Colonel K. D. Cooke

Inspector General of Police,

To

The Secretary to Government,
Pension Department,
Fort St. George

Sir,

Through the Accountant General

I have the honor to submit for the orders of Government an application for the grant of a pension to Sydaikut Ramachindra Nayudu, late Manager of my office who has retired from the service from the 1st inst being over 55 years of age and his mental and physical powers being much impaired.

2. He has served in the Police Department and other offices at the Presidency Town for 31 years

5 months and 12 days and has borne a very good character.

3. He is entitled to a retiring monthly pension of Rupees (150-0-0) why 150?
one hundred and fifty only payable at Madras from the 7th March 1883 according to Section 112 of the Civil Pension Code.

4. He requests that the enclosed petition may be submitted to Government for favorable consideration. On account of the valuable service rendered by him in the early days of Police organization
I have the honor to recommend his application for increase of pension to the favorable notice of Government. He has always borne an excellent character and performed his duties with zeal and ability until his failing

Proceedings of the Madras Government.

Read the following papers:—

(1) From the Inspector General of Police dated 8th May 1883 No. 1201
Accountant-General, dated 31st March 1883 No. 801

Note The Inspector General recommends the applicant for an increased pension towards a memorial petition from the applicant. He has always borne a very good character but his petition shows a reason for exceptional treatment only that he cannot write good English. He has an exaggerated sense of the importance of his "messant" duties. He quotes a precedent G.O. 9th July 1869 no 208 but there only a bangle was given to an Inspector & he had earned. Precedents are all against applicant's request. Under sec. 134 payable at Madras from 9th March 1883. Superior in consideration of his qualifying service of thirteen years, thirteen months and thirteen days.

G.O. 11th July 1877 no 361.
G.O. 22 May 1878 no 197
G.O. 8th Dec. 1880 no 1184
V. Ramisagar C.S. 1

Secretary of State who has complained of such recommendations. Superior in consideration of his qualifying service of thirteen years, thirteen months and thirteen days.

Trays the full amount of pension due is to be granted only as the reward of approved service. He is out of order in recommending special pension for approved service. The Govt. is working in this case to justify exceptional treatment. Superior in consideration of his qualifying service of thirteen years, thirteen months and thirteen days.

is nothing in this case to justify exceptional treatment.

Venban Kinn Rameung was was a strong case: yet the Govt. rejected their inability to recommend any addition to his pension (G.O. & Dec.
1880 H. 1184). The order of the Secy of State referred to in the Secy's note seems conclusive against this application.

None at all. He has done his duty - has had good pay & has now a very good pension - He should be told he was at fault in regard to compliance
with the law & request there being no ground for such exceptional treatment.
He has for the numerous tasks of the prison & his
