GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers :—

From the Collector of Bellary, dated 15th January 1883, No. 96.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 7th April 1883, No. A.D.J.-6.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for twenty-five years, nine months, and six days, and that, subject to the remarks below recorded, an invalid pension not exceeding Rs. 42-8-0 per mensem, equal to half average emoluments, is admissible under Sections 102 and 109 (c) of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition.

With the application are forwarded two Medical Certificates, both confirming the applicant's incapacity for further service. The one is dated the 28th November 1882, while the other is dated the 22nd December 1882. The circumstances connected with the submission of the second certificate are explained by the Collector in paragraphs 2 and 3 of his reply to the Reference, No. A.D.K.-170 of the 6th February 1883, made by this office, which is appended to the correspondence. It rests with Government, with reference to this explanation, to decide whether the date of applicant's severance from the Public Service and the date of commencement of his pension should be reckoned from the 21st of November 1882, the date from which the applicant claims payment of his pension, the date on which he was degraded from an appointment on pay of Rs. 85 to an appointment on pay of Rs. 35 a month, which he never joined, or from the 22nd December 1882, the date mentioned by the Collector in the 1st page of the application. Rule 1, Section 105 of the Code prescribes that an officer who has submitted a Medical Certificate should not be retained in active service; and Rule 1, Section 163 lays down that pension is payable from the date on which the pensioner ceased to be borne on the establishment.

The Collector's proposal that the applicant should be granted a pension of Rs. 42-0-5 in lieu of Rs. 42-8-0 a month is due to an erroneous method of calculation of average emoluments.

From the remarks entered opposite to No. 1 on the 3rd page of the application, the character and past conduct of the applicant do not appear to have been entirely satisfactory. It rests further, therefore, with Government to decide what reduction should be made in the amount of the applicant's pension, admissible to him with reference to Rule 1, Section 65 of the Civil Pension Code.

Order—dated 30th April 1883, No. 350, Pension.

Under Sections 102 and 109 (c) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Chouloor Rama Row, late English Clerk, Collector's Office, Bellary, an invalid pension of Rs. (42-8-0) forty-two and Annas eight per mensem, payable at Bellary, from the 22nd December 1882, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of twenty-five years, nine months, and six days.

Bellary.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No 96 dated the 15 January 1883, forwarding an application for Pension on behalf of C Rama Row, late 4th English Clerk of your office, I have the honor to state that the age of the applicant is under 55 years, and to request therefore that you will be so good as to ask the Examining Medical Officer to give detailed reasons for considering him to be permanently unfit for further service. You should also furnish your own explanation as to the grounds on which you proposed to invalid him without requiring him to join his new appointment as 4th English Clerk to which post he was degraded in Connection with the late defalcation Case in your Office or without granting him leave of absence on Medical Certificate if it was actually necessary.

Please state how the period from 18 November to 21 December 1882 is to be regarded for the purposes of Pension Code. If it is to be regarded as absence

...nts petition d/ 29 Jan 83

without leave, it would follow that such absence was in continuation of suspension from employment not followed by reinstatement, and it would therefore, under Section 96, entail forfeiture of past services.

Please also explain how the average emoluments of the applicant have been determined to be Rs 84 - a month, while they would seem to be Rs. 85 - -. Vide rule 2 under the Definition of the term "Average emoluments".

The application is herewith returned, in order that you may enter in the appropriate place, whether the Character, Conduct and past services of the applicant were such as to entitle him to the favorable Consideration of the Government or not. Vide rule 1, Section 128 of the Civil Pension Code.

BELLARY ~~MAGISTRATE'S~~ Collectors OFFICE

No 809 Dated 15th March 1883

From H. P. Gordon Esquire
~~THE MAGISTRATE~~ Collector OF BELLARY

To
The Accountant General, Madras.

Sir,

With reference to your No. A. D. K / 17° of 6th Ultimo, I have the honor to forward Doctor Archdall's letter giving reasons for considering C. Rama Row to be permanently unfit for further service. The illegibility of handwriting referred to by the Civil Surgeon was probably assumed for the occasion

2. I was not aware at the time his application was made that Rama Row had not actually joined the appointment to which he had been degraded. His degradation which was directed by me in an order dated 17th November was communicated to him on the 20th November by the Treasury Deputy Collector. On the 21st November he applied for pension, and on the

28th November produced a Medical Certificate, certifying that he was unfit for the post of Head Accountant. The medical officer was thereupon informed that he had been degraded to a subordinate position in the Correspondence Department and asked if his Certificate still held good. On the 22d December he gave the Certificate forwarded to you.

3. C. Rama Row neither joined his new appointment nor applied for sick leave, and must therefore be held to have been absent without leave from 20th November to 28th November (the date of the first Certificate). I would, however submit that "reinstatement" in office, would not appear necessarily to require the party to take charge of the office in which he is reinstated

4. In calculating average emoluments pay for one month and 4 days (from 18th November to 21st December) was included at the rate of 35 Rs per mensem. the pay of the appointment to which C. Rama Row was degraded. Hence the figures Rs 84. 0. 10

The figures 85 suggested by you appear however to be the correct ones.

5. I have inserted remarks in autograph opposite the heading "Character and past conduct of applicant."

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your Most Obedient Servant,
C Macleane

It is with the greatest pleasure I certify that I have known Chowtoor Rama Row, the Head Accountant of the Collector's Office at Bellary since 1859 & have always considered him to be a hard-working & faithful Servant of Govt. It is only the circumstance of his not having passed the Deputy Collector's test that bars his appointment to such a post. His knowledge of accounts is very good. His knowledge of English is also very fair. I can speak thus confidently of him as I found him to be of great service to me during my tenure of Office as Treasury Deputy Collector at Bellary. As Chief Auditor he rendered very good service in bringing into order the hopeless confusion that characterized the Famine Accounts of the Bellary District & thus satisfactorily adjusting the enormous outlay of 150 lakhs of Rupees. I should be glad to hear that he has been appointed Treasury Deputy Collector.

Nellore

Henry Howell
Ag Treasury Deputy Collector

I have known Mr. Thowloo Raman, the present Head Accountan of the Bellary Collector's Office, througho his Public Career — He commenced to work under me as a Volunteer, in the Collector's Office, in the year 185 Finding him an intelligent, useful, trustworthy and painstaking young man, and as he had attended the Office much more regularly than most of the paid servants there, I took an interest in him, and taught him the duties of the Office — and, in a short time, he became better qualified to take up the more important business of the Office, than most of the old hands there — And afterwards, as vacancies occurred in the Office, from time to time, he superseded some of his seniors, having outstripped them in the examinations which were held, on those occasions — Soon after I was appointed Deputy Collector and Magistrate, the place of Second

English Accountant became vacant, and as Mr. Ramarow was the best qualified man in the department there, the appointment was conferred upon him; and within a year after that, he easily succeeded to the Head English Accountantship, as there was no one able to compete with him in the department — which place he filled so efficiently ~~that~~ for sixteen years, that he was found to be the best man, in the whole district, to fill the appointment of Chief Auditor of the Famine Accounts. He acquitted himself in that appointment in a praise-worthy manner — and, when he reverted to his permanent post of Head Accountant, after the famine, he personally superintended the preparation of the final account of the Famine Department, being seated close to my desk all the while; and this work was done so well, that the whole amount of famine expenditure has been thoroughly adjusted, and I believe the Famine Accounts of Bellary were some of the first, which had reached the Accountant General's Office — Mr. Ramarow has, besides his great experience in the Account Department, much knowledge in Revenue matters — In fact, he is an excellent Public Servant. and some of the best Collectors who were in this District, have borne testimony in regard to his cleverness, efficiency and usefulness. Viz: Messrs. Pelly, Hathaway, Wedderburn, Sullivan and Master.— Mr. Ramarow had maintained his high character for efficiency, honesty and trustworthiness up to the time that I had retired from the Service, that I gladly accede now to his request, to grant him a testimonial expressing my opinion of his attainments and worthiness —

C „ Accountant-General, dated 7th April 1883 No ADf/6

~~Order~~ Note The applicant has qualified for a pension of Rs: 3 42. 8 & he retires because he does not wish to join a post of Rs: 35 to which he was degraded from one of Rs: 85 in consequence of his neglect of duty in connection with the frauds in the Bellary Treasury.

The sentence of reduction was considered lenient by the Board. Had the applicant gone on service, he would have suffered because his pension ($\frac{1}{2}$ of average emoluments or $\frac{1}{2}$ pay after 30 years) would have been reduced.

As it is he loses nothing if he gets a $\frac{1}{2}$ average emoluments pension & it is for consideration how much should pass. His service is certainly not "approved service" & so he should not have the full pension. See pages 6. 7. 8 & 11 (passages marked) of G.O. 5th Decr. 1882 No 1371 put up.
