8TH MAY 1883, NO. 376, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the Director of Revenue Settlement and Agriculture, dated 19th February 1883, No. 466—78.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 18th April 1883, No. A.D.J.-20.

Certified that, should Government be pleased to regard the applicant's employment on the Boundary Establishment from 19th September 1868 to 21st May 1874 as an interruption of service not entailing forfeiture of past service, service in inferior grades will be duly proved for seven years, three months, and twenty-nine days. But it should be noticed that there have been frequent breaks in the continuity of the applicant's service, and that in the case of more than half-a-dozen breaks, the break is attributed to reduction of establishment. It seems hardly credible that a permanent and pensionable establishment could have been subjected to reductions so frequently. The doubt is further confirmed by the remarks of the Director of Revenue Settlement who states "that the frequency of reduction of establishment is an argument against its permanency."

2. Moreover, the loss of the applicant's appointment would appear to have been due to a deficit, in the budget allotment necessitating a reduction of establishment. The abolition of appointment therefore was not based upon any order of Government as seems to be contemplated by the Civil Pension Code. Under these circumstances, no gratuity would seem to be admissible under the strict letter of the rules of the Code.

3. Under ordinary circumstances, a compensation gratuity of Rs. 18, equal to three months' pay, would be admissible under Sections 100 and 117 (a) of the Code.

4. The case appears to be one similar to that of K. Kistnier, disposed of in G.O., No. 1105, dated 15th November 1882.

5. The particulars required by Rules 1 and 6 of Section 100 of the Code are given opposite to No. 4 in the 3rd page of the application.

6. The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Director of Revenue Settlement in his reply to this office, No. A.D.K.-184, dated 15th March 1883.

ORDER—dated 8th May 1883, No. 376, Pension.

The applicant's case being similar to that of K. Kistnier, disposed of by G.O., Mis. No. 1105, dated 15th November 1882, the Government do not consider that he is entitled to any retiring allowance.

Sir,

In reply to your footnote of the 17th Instant No $\frac{735}{148}$ calling for certain further information required by the Accountant General with reference to the application for Gratuity sent in on behalf of peon Besta Obigadu, I have the honor to return the papers once more with the following explanation.

(1) The class of records from which applicant's services have been verified has been duly entered in the column headed "How verified."

(2) The man submitted his application for gratuity on the 19th August 1882.

1882. Details of his past services had then to be carefully gone over and the Statement was forwarded to the Accountant General for verification in November. After its return it was detained till the 12th February as no reply had yet been received to a reference made to the man to know where he wished the money paid and not wishing to delay the papers any longer they were then sent in with this entry blank and a pencil remark explaining why it could not be filled up. The information on this subject has only just been received.

(3) The amount of saving to Government is now filled up against item 4 on page 3 of the application the other information having been already given.

(4) The cause of the omission to insert the place of payment has been explained above vide-(2) It has now been duly filled up.

(5) A copy of the order transferring the man to the Building Establishment is enclosed. Such transfers were generally made in the interests of the public Service.

(6) In addition to the information already furnished in my memo of explanation in reply to Accountant General's letter dated 15th December 1882 No IaE/390.

I can only add that I am not aware of any Government order authorizing the temporary temporary reductions on the Permanent Establishment in this Department. These were made in the interests of the Public service and the one object kept in view was the not exceeding the amount of the Budget allotment.

(7) For the reasons above given I cannot quote any order of Government directing the abolition of applicant's post. As already stated the reduction was made in the interests of the public service and the remark on the 3d page of the application shows that no re-employment could be found for the man under Section 100 Rule 1.

SIR,

In returning herewith the statement of services of Besta Obigadu received with your letter No 1022/379 dated the 30 November 1882, I have the honor to state that the services as detailed therein have been verified with reference to the Annual Returns of 1 April of the years from 1866 to 1868 and for 1877, 1879 and 1880 on record in this office and found to be correct. In the returns for the years excepted, the applicant's name is not traceable, and the reason for the omission should be satisfactorily explained.

The omission of the name [illegible] in the annual returns [illegible] in 1875 [illegible]

I observe from the statement, that there have been frequent breaks in the continuity of the applicant's service, and in the case of more than half a dozen breaks the cause is attributed to reduction of Establishment. It is hardly credible that a permanent and pensionable Establishment could have been subjected to reductions so frequently. It may be explained that the [illegible] ~~[illegible]~~ [illegible] ~~whenever~~ according as the services were required either in the Field or Office in which the applicant was employed was really a permanent one and whether the several reductions alluded to above were duly authorized by Government

It is not understood why the submission of an application for preliminary verification of service was considered necessary when the applicant in this case actually retired from the service in June 1882

Explanation called for in the Accountant General's letter of the 15. December 1882 No $\frac{IAE}{390}$

The Omission of the man's name in the Annual Returns from 1869 to 1875 and in 1878 & 1881 is attributable to his not being on the Establishment from 19. September 1868 to 21 May 1874 nor at the time when the Returns for 1875. 1878 & 1881 were prepared. In 1876 it appears to have been inadvertently left out. It was entered in 1882.
