From G. P. W. Accl.

Dated 12th April 1883.

FOR ORDERS.

The applicant a Lascar, was discharged on reduction of establishment in Feb^y 1880, but he has since re-employed by Govt. in a permanent post in April 1882. Before he applied for gratuity for his service. The question is, is a gratuity (Rs. 18) due to him or not.

The Examiner admits it is an open question but it is submitted it is ~~not~~ hardly so.

Sir: 100 says an officer granted compensation or gratuity cannot refuse any app^t. He said him without losing it for any interval of time to make his service precarious, he must refuse.

Since the man is re-employed before he applies for gratuity for his previous service. Suppose he dies now, he can get nothing but if he gets the Rs. 18/- he can die having been provisioned in anticipation. It is submitted the Govt. position is untenable. 5/5/83.

Sir,
There is nothing in the papers to show that the main present employment is temporary but to be on the safe side we might word the order like the first para of G. O. N^o 542 dated 11th June 1881.

The Examiner should have ascertained whether the appointment was temporary or permanent before submitting the order to Govt.

The service of men employed in the Imperial Petty Establishment is considered to be of a permanent nature vide G. O. 2^d April 1881 N^o 583 and 27th June 1881 N^o 583, but it seems doubtful if the appointment is

I have the honor to forward herewith

for orders.

2. No employment was found for him,
as several others who had more service, and better claims than he, had to be provided for,
before his claims could be considered.

3. The delay in the submission of these papers is due to nothing having been known to the Executive Engineer, Bellary Division, (with which the late Bangalore Junction Division was amalgamated) of the applicant's whereabouts, he having lived in the Kistna District. The Division Officer, however, ascertained where the applicant was, collected information, and application for gratuity on his behalf on the 10th August last. This, however, had to be sent to the Executive Engineers Eastern and Western Divisions, Ristna, for further information which reached this office only on the 31st October last.
