I send you a copy of the note Mr. Morris made on your character before embarking for England. It was as follows— "Kundappa Menon is quiet in manner and very anxious to please. He under stands Police work well, and as far as I know his conduct has been good." During the short time you were under me, I had every reason to be pleased with you, as I mentioned in a letter which I wrote to you before you left. You have my best wishes for your well-being. Do not forget the advice I gave you. It succeeded in life a man must always be spoken of as a Guz Durasur. Yours faithfully Patghark Feb 1867 } (Signed) N. S. Sullivan To Kundappa Menon Head of the Division. I know you have been a very useful servant since I came to the District. But I determined that the next Head of this astadar should know English well, for there is so much correspondence in English now that it is simply impossible for a person unacquainted with English to perform a Head Astadar's duties now a days efficiently. I have a good opinion of you and hope always to have reason to have a good opinion of you. But on the present occasion I cannot comply with your request. Yours truly Calicut 31-8-66 } (Signed) H. T. Ballard Kundappa Menon is a quiet hard working man, but is not an efficient Head Astadar owing to his ignorance of the English language.
