8TH JANUARY 1883, No. 4, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From Colonel H. D. CLOETE, Inspector-General of Police, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department (through the Accountant-General), dated Madras, 15th December 1882, No. 6452.

With reference to paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 989, dated 14th October 1882, Pension Department, I have the honor to forward a certificate showing that Jaya Kanoo, late Second-class Constable No. 365 of the Jeypore District, has not the normal prospects of life.

ENCLOSURE.

Certificate.

Second-class Constable Kanoo, No. 365, has been a patient under me in the Police Hospital, Koraput. He was sent before an Invaliding Board for chronic asthma complicated with cardiac disease and was considered unfit for further service. Judging his case from a medical aspect, I am of opinion that life could not be prolonged over a period of four years if nothing occurs to accelerate death before that time. Sudden death from failure of the heart is possible at any moment.

KORAPUT,
4th December 1882.

(Signed) F. BLAKE,
Assistant Apothecary.

A.D.J.-No. 400.

Submitted to Government with the remark that it is apparent from the certificate appended that Jaya Kanoo, late Second-class Constable No. 365 of the Jeypore Police Force, does not possess the normal prospects of life, and his claim to commutation of the pension sanctioned to him in G.O., No. 989, dated the 14th October 1882, cannot therefore be entertained.

2. It is further observed that Section 174 of the Civil Pension Code prescribes that a life-pension exceeding twenty rupees a year may not be commuted into a lump sum. Even assuming, therefore, that the prospects of life of the applicant were normal, his application for a commuted allowance could not be admitted as the pension sanctioned to him exceeds 20 rupees a-year.

ORDER—dated 8th January 1883, No. 4, Pension.

Recorded. For the reasons given by the Accountant-General the pension granted by G.O., 14th October 1882, No. 989, cannot be commuted.
