READ—the following papers:—

From the Collector of Malabar, dated 23rd March 1883.

ABSTRACT.—Submitting an application for gratuity on behalf of Champail Ramooni, late Peon, Ponáni Taluk, Malabar District.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 21st May 1883, No. A.D.J.-62.

Certified that qualifying service in inferior grades has been duly proved for thirteen years, nine months, and eleven days, but that no gratuity would seem to be admissible for reasons stated below.

2. The rules in the Civil Pension Code prescribe that an invalid pension or gratuity should be awarded to a person who by bodily or mental infirmity is permanently incapacitated for further public service, such an incapacity being established by a medical certificate signed by a Commissioned Officer. In the present case no such certificate is forthcoming. From a copy of the Head Assistant Collector's letter, No. 1492, dated 20th November 1882, furnished, it would appear that that officer considered the applicant to be bed-ridden, and that he was therefore unable to travel to Calicut for the purpose of obtaining a medical certificate. When this was known to the Collector he adopted measures to call for a certificate, but could not succeed as the applicant was reported to have died on the 23rd January last. There is no rule in the Civil Pension Code under which an application for gratuity could be entertained under circumstances such as those detailed above (vide this office reference to the Collector, No. A.D.K.-5, dated 13th April 1883, and his reply thereto, herewith transmitted.)

ORDER—dated 22nd June 1883, No. 539, Pension.

The applicant was a resident of Ponáni, in which taluk he was a peon, and where there is no Medical Commissioned Officer. Being bed-ridden he was unable to travel to Calicut, and died before a medical certificate could be arranged for. He was a man of good character, and it would be very unjust that his family should be deprived of the gratuity he had earned because he was physically incapacitated from marching to Calicut. The Government resolve to pass the gratuity of Rs. 24 subject to the confirmation of the Government of India.

Collector of

SIR,

With reference to your application for gratuity on behalf of Champail Ramooni, late Peon Ponani Taluk, I have the honor to enquire why the applicant's name was not included in the Annual Returns of 1st April 1876 and 1877 furnished to this Office while from the history of services recorded in the 2nd page of the application he would appear to have been in service on that date.

With regard to the claim for gratuity I have to observe that the rules in the Civil Pension Code, prescribe that an Invalid pension or gratuity should be awarded to a person who by bodily or mental infirmity is permanently incapacitated from the Public Service such incapacity being established by

MALABAR TREASURY,

CALCUTTA, 5th May

FROM

THE TREASURY OFFICER OF MALABAR,

TO,

The Accountant General
Port St. George

Sir,

In reply to your letter No. A.O. 36 of the 13th ultimo, (herewith returned), I have the honor to state that the office copies of the Pay abstracts and acquittance Bolls for April 1876 & 1877, bear the name of Chamrail Ramooni. The entry of a wrong name in the annual returns must be a mistake.
Those returns were probably prepared on a report to the pay abstracts of the previous months, during which the applicant was on leave.

With reference to the 2nd para of your letter under reply, I beg to enclose a certificate of the Tahsildar (under whom the applicant served last) to the effect that the individual was totally incapable for Public Service from 11th September 1882.

Copy of the Head Asst. Collector's letter
No. 1492 dt 20th November 82, containing the required information is also enclosed.

The date of the applicant's death was the 23rd January last.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Treasury Officer,

by a Medical Certificate signed by a Commissioned Medical Officer. In the present case no such certificate is forthcoming, nor has any documentary evidence been furnished to prove that the officer under whom the applicant last served was of opinion that the applicant suffered from a disease such as permanently to incapacitate him for further Public Service. In the absence of any explanation on this point, I am unable to see how the claim for gratuity can be intertained under the rules of the Code.

Please forward the letter dated 11th September 1882, in which the applicant requested permission to retire from the Service on a gratuity and report the date of his death.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith the Service Book of Champayil Ramunni a Peon of the Ponnani Taluk. He is at present bed-ridden and therefore I have not been able to obtain a medical certificate in his case as he is quite unfit to travel to Calicut for that purpose. He has been on leave since 11th Aug^t 1881, and is never likely, the Tahsildar reports, he able to rejoin his post. His Service begins from 1st December 1868, and he, therefore, has a total Service of 13 years 9 months and 10 days up to 11th September 1882, the date on which he submitted his application for pension or gratuity. As his total Service is above 10 years and less than 15 years, he is entitled to a gratuity equal to the amount of only 4 months' pay under Section 117(a) of the Civil Pension Code.

2. As there is no hope of recovery from his present Sickness, Rheumatism, &c. I am issuing orders to fill up permanently the vacancy caused by his absence.

3. I therefore request that steps may be taken to sanction a gratuity of four months' pay to the Peon in question.

I am, Sir,

Yours faithfully,

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

No ADJ. Certificate that qualifying service in Superior Grade has been duly proved for 13 years 9 months and 11 days, but that no Gratuity would seem to be admissible for reasons stated below.

The rules in the Civil Pension Code prescribe that an awarded pension or Gratuity should be awarded to a person who by bodily or mental infirmity is permanently incapacitated for further Public Service, such an incapacity being established by a Medical Certificate signed by a Commissioned Officer. In the present case no such Certificate is forthcoming. From a copy of the Head Assistant Collector's letter No. 1492 dated 20th November/82, furnished, it would appear that that Officer considered the applicant to be bedridden and that he was therefore unable to travel to Calcutta for the purpose of obtaining a Medical Certificate. When this was known to the Collector he adopted measures to call for a Certificate, but could not succeed as the applicant was reported to have died on the 23rd January last. There is no rule in the Civil Pension Code under which an application for Gratuity could be entertained under circumstances such as those detailed above. With this office reference to the Collector No. 1824 dated 13th April/83 and his reply thereto herewith transmitted.
