30TH JUNE 1883, No. 572, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From the Inspector-General of Police, dated 11th May 1883, No. 2312.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 8th June 1883, No. A.D.J.-75

Certified that qualifying service in the Police Department has been duly proved for twenty-one years three months and twenty-one days, and that an invalid pension not exceeding Rs. 10-12-3 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, plus the additional percentage, is admissible under the Police Superannuation Fund Rules.

2. It will be seen from the history of his service that the applicant was holding an appointment the pay of which exceeded Rs. 20 per mensem up to 1st January 1883, when he was degraded for general inefficiency to an appointment on pay of Rs. 20 a month. Had he not been thus degraded, he would have been eligible for a pension of Rs. 8-5-4 a month under Section 145 subject to increase of 10 per cent. of the average emoluments of the last five years under the provisions of Rule 1 of that section, should it be found that the applicant suffered in respect of pension by reason of his promotion to an appointment on pay exceeding Rs. 20 a month. If he had not obtained any promotion during the last five years of his service, he would have been entitled to a pension equal to one-third average emoluments, plus the additional percentage allowable for his service exceeding twenty-one years under the Police Superannuation Fund Rules. There is no rule, however, in the Civil Pension Code under which average emoluments should be calculated in a case similar to that of the applicant who obtained promotion during the last five years of his service to an appointment on pay of Rs. 25, and was afterwards degraded to an appointment on pay of Rs. 20 a month.

3. In the absence of a definite rule this office concurs with the Inspector-General of Police in thinking that he should be granted a pension regulated under the rule the Police Superannuation Fund. This opinion is, however, subject to approval Government.

4. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

ORDER—dated 30th June 1883, No. 572, Pension.

Under Sections 102 and 143 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Sunkarry Kuniah, late Second-grade Head Constable, No. 974, of the Ganjam Police Force, an invalid pension of

Rs. (10-12-0) ten and Annas twelve per mensem, payable at Chicacole from 22nd February 1883, in consideration of his qualifying Police service of twenty-one years three months and twenty-one days.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

No 75 Certificate that qualifying service in the Police Department has been duly proved for 21 years 3 months and 21 days; and that an Invalid's pension not exceeding Rs. per M. per M. 12-3 per M. is unequal to 43 average emoluments plus the additional per centage is admissible under the Valid Superannuation Fund Rules.

It will be seen from the History of his service that the applicant was holding an appointment the pay of which exceeded Rs. 20 -- per M. up to 1st January 83, when he was degraded for general inefficiency to an appointment on pay of Rs. 20 a month. Had he not been thus degraded, he would have been eligible for a pension of Rs. 8-5-4 a month under Section 115 subject to increase of ten percent of the average emoluments of the last five years under the provisions of rule 1 of that section, should it be found that the applicant suffered in respect of pension by reason of his promotion to an appointment on pay exceeding Rs. 20 a month. If he had not obtained any promotion during the last 5 years of his service, he would have been entitled to a pension equal to 43 average emoluments plus the additional per centage allowable for his service exceeding 21 years under the Valid Superannuation Fund Rules. There is no doubt however in the Civil Service Code, under which average emoluments should be calculated in a case similar to that of the applicant who obtained promotion during the last 5 years of his service to an appointment on pay of Rs. 25 and was afterwards degraded to an appointment on pay of Rs. 20 a month.

In the absence of a definite rule this office concurs with the Inspector General of Police in thinking that he should be granted a pension regulated under the rules of the Valid Superannuation Fund. This opinion is however subject to approval by Government.

An account under Rule 4, under Section 130 the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

Sonkarry Kunnial
son of Sonkarry Kunnial

a 2^d Grade Head Constable in the Ganjam Police Department. His age is by his own statement 150 years, and by appearance, about 50 years. We consider Sonkarry Kunnial to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of Leprosy.

His incapacity does not appear to us to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.
