Rangoon 2nd June/83.
Enclosure 1.

Subject:

In reply to his Memo
No. 688 of 28th Instant forwarding official Memorandum No 33 of May 1883 from the Acting Under Secretary to Government the undersigned has the honor to state that he adheres to the Original Certificates granted to P. Parthasarthy Naidu & C. Balaram
Clerks.

Clerks of the Ordnance Department Rangoon viz that premature old age is the cause of infirmity.

These clerks must have been entertained at an age over that prescribed in the Regulations hence the discrepancy in the difference of ages mentioned in Certificates.

Their age according to their own statement was 50 & 40 respectively but by appearance both were over 55 years and their incapacity is due to premature old age and not to irregular or intemperate habits.
