SIR,

I have the honour to forward for disposal an application for an Invalid gratuity of Rs 30 to Polisetty Sundaramudu, late peon Chinna Ganjann
Salt Factory, Kistna District, together with his Service Book.

2. It will be seen from thence that the applicant was thrown out on reduction of Establishment in December 1862 and was paid a gratuity of Rs 22½.
The amount of gratuity does not appear to have been refunded by the applicant on his re-employment under Government in September 1866, nor is the order sanctioning gratuity forthcoming from the records

records of the Treasury Deputy Collector, Mithna.

3. The application was originally received in this office on February 19, 1883, and the Assistant Commissioner of Salt Revenue, Mithna, explains that its late submission was due to certain references which had to be made regarding the applicant's former gratuity and service. After its receipt in this office the application had again to be returned by me for corrections and for further information.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
your most obedient servant,
