17TH JULY 1883, NO. 630, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the Commissioner of Salt Revenue, dated 30th March 1883, No. 4023.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 4th July 1883, No. A.D.J.-119.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for eighteen years eight months and fifteen days, and that an invalid pension not exceeding Rs. 23-0-2 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, is admissible under Sections 102 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition).

2. In the first page of the application it is proposed that the applicant be granted a pension of Rs. 22-0-3 only instead of Rs. 23-0-2 per mensem. The difference is due, it is presumed, to an erroneous method of calculation of the average emoluments.

3. It is observed that the Commissioner of Salt Revenue in his endorsement, No. 4258, dated 6th April 1883, recommends that the one day's pay which the applicant drew for the period of his absence beyond the three months' privilege leave, stated to have been granted him from 5th October 1874, should be recovered from the arrears of pension due to him. With reference to this observation it is pointed out that in the leave statements furnished to this office the applicant is shown to have been granted only two months' privilege leave and to have returned to duty on the due date, viz., 5th December 1875.

4. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

ORDER—dated 17th July 1883, No. 630, Pension.

Under Sections 102 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Kayar Srinivasa Charlu, late Head Clerk, Salt Assistant Commissioner's Office, Chingleput Division, an invalid pension of Rs. (23) twenty-three per mensem, payable at Madras from 8th February 1883, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of eighteen years eight months and fifteen days.

2. As it appears that the applicant's average salary during the last five years of his service was Rs. 69-0-8 and not Rs. 66-0-10 per mensem, as entered in his Service Register, the amount of pension admissible to him has been calculated accordingly.

Sir,

With reference to para 1 of your Proceedings No. 3775 dated 27th March 1883, I have the honour to state that I cannot trace how K. Srinivasacharlu was allowed one day in excess of the three months Privilege leave granted to him from 5th October 1874 to 4th January 1875, the excess was neither a sunday or an authorized holiday; I have therefore deducted one day from the applicants total service and request that a similar alteration may be made in your office.

2. In reply to para 2 of the Proceedings under reference, I beg to state that the appointment for which he drew pay from 25th to 31st July 1878 was Taluq Sheristadar
