GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From the Collector of Malabar, dated 6th April 1883.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 29th June 1883, No. A.D.J.-103.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for twenty-one years seven months and five days, and that a superannuation pension not exceeding Rs. 5 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, is admissible under Sections 106, 109 (b), and 111 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition). The calculations have been duly verified. It will be seen from the first page of the application that the Collector proposes the grant to the applicant of a pension of Rs. 6-4-0 in lieu of Rs. 5 only a-month. The difference is due to the inclusion in the calculation of average emoluments of the additional deputation allowance drawn by the applicant during his employment, as admitted by the Collector, on the temporary Escheat establishment, Malabar, and it has been excluded from the calculation of average emoluments made by this office under Rule 1, Section 123, of the Civil Pension Code.

2. It is further observed that the applicant was granted leave on private affairs from 6th September 1882 to 4th March 1883, and he drew absentee allowance at Rs. 10 per mensem the moiety pay of his temporary appointment as Escheat Gumastah, instead of at Rs. 7-8-0 only the moiety pay of his substantive appointment under Government. The payment of the absentee allowance at the former rate is irregular, and will therefore need to be recovered from the arrears of pension due to him, unless Government is pleased to exempt him from refunding the excess amount.

3. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

ORDER—dated 23rd July 1883, No. 652, Pension.

Under Sections 106, 109 (b), and 111 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Renga Prebhu, late Escheat Gumastah, Kóttayam Taluk, Malabar District, a superannuation pension of Rs. (5) five per mensem, payable at Kóttayam Taluk, Tellicherry, from 5th March 1883, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of twenty-one years seven months and five days.

2. The Collector's recommendation of a pension of Rs. 6-4-0 is due to the applicant's pay from 1st June 1879 to 4th March 1883, the period during which he served on the temporary Escheat establishment as Escheat Gumastah, having been calculated at Rs. 20 instead of at the proper rate, viz., Rs. 15 per mensem, the pay of his substantive appointment as third gumastah.

3. The excess allowance drawn owing to a similar miscalculation by the applicant during his absence on private affairs leave from 6th September 1882 to 4th March 1883 will be recovered from the pension now sanctioned.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

No. 48103

CERTIFIED that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in { inferior superior } grades has been duly proved for equal to 21 years equal to 13 average emoluments equal to 106, 109 1/2 of the Civil Pension Code. The pension is admissible under Section 106, 109 1/2 of the Civil Pension Code. The pension is not exceeding Rs. 5 and 5 paise per annum, is chargeable to the pension fund.

calculations have been duly verified. The pension is chargeable to the pension fund.

It will be seen from the 1st page of the application that the Collector proposed the grant to the applicant of a pension of Rs. 6.00 only a month. The difference is due to the inclusion in the calculation of average emoluments of the additional deputational allowance drawn by the applicant during his employment, as admitted by the Collector, or the temporary school establishment at Malabar, and it has been excluded from the calculation of average emoluments made by this office under rule 1 section 123 of the Civil Pension Code.

It is further observed that the applicant was granted leave on private affairs from 6th September 1882 to 24th March 1883, and he drew absentee allowance at Rs. 10.00 per month. The monthly pay of his temporary appointment as school accountant instead of at Rs. 7.80 only the monthly pay of his substantive appointment under Government. The payment of the absentee allowance at the rate of Rs. 10.00 per month is suggested. The pension fund is to be charged from the pension due to him, under Government, is to be paid to exempt him from paying the average amount. In accordance with Rule 11, under Section 123, the attached of Government is respectfully submitted to Section 65 of the Code.

SIR,

With reference to your application for pension on behalf of Ranga Reddy, late an Ascheat Gymnast, Kotyam Taluk, I have the honour to state that the applicant's service from August 1868 to 1874 as detailed in the 2nd page of the application is not borne out by the Audit Registers on record in this office. The Registers show that R. Kanhamban Aidi was acting in the post of the applicant from August 1868 to December 1872. Gopala Menon from December 1872 to 1873 and K. Jyvan Menon in 1874. If this was the case, please explain how the applicant was employed during these periods, from what fund his pay was disbursed and by whom the pay bills were audited.

Please

Please expedite the transmission of the applicants Last Day

SIR,

With reference to your Treasury Deputy's letter No. 992 dated 15 May 1883, I have the honor to draw your attention to the 2 sentences of clause 16 of Section 75 of the Civil Pension Code, from which you will observe that service in the Malabar Pochet Establishment, can be admitted towards pension only when it is followed without interruption by qualifying service. In the present instance, the applicant's service commenced in the Regular Permanent Establishment of Government, but frequently interrupted by detachments to duties in the Pochet Establishment, and the case therefore does not fall within the scope of the Section quoted above. I have to enquire therefore

In No 250

therefore whether the employment in that Establishment may be regarded as detachment to Temporary Estab-lishment coming within the provisions of Section 71 of the Code. In which case it should be proved:-

- (a) That the Establishment is a tempo-rary one, the bills of which are sus-ceptible of audit by this Office.
- (b) That the applicant's detachment was on the understanding that he would return to his appointment in the Permanent Establishment when the temporary duty ceased.
- (c) That the applicant's locum tenens did not count towards pension the service in his appointment from 1868 to 30 April 1872 and from 1st December 1872 to 9 February 1874.

Please justify the reckoning of the average emoluments from 1st June 1874 to 4th March 1883 at Rs. 20 per mensem, with reference to the particulars put in the Civil Pension Code.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your obedient servant

Reply.

- (a) The applicant's employment in the Malabar Escheat Establishment falls within the scope of Section 71 of the Code. The appli-cant's pay bills up to 1877 were audited by the Board of Revenue and subsequently by your Office.
- (b) The applicant's detachment to the Escheat Establishment was on the clear understanding that he would revert to his permanent post when the Escheat duty ceased.
- (c) The applicant's locum tenens cannot count towards pension the service in his acting appointments, in as much as the applicant claims the Service.

The Calculation of the average emoluments of the applicant from 1st June 1874 to 4th March 1883, is justifiable under rule 1 to Section II Page IV of the Civil Pension Code.
