As the Revenue Inspector had

The Revenue Inspector reports that he received the packets on the 2nd September last, secured them in the house of one Subbukutti Iyer in Malagraharam where he was temporarily lodging, found them all right in the night but missed them in the morning; that he laid information at once before the Police and Town Sub-Magistrate but that notwithstanding all endeavours he has not been able to discover them. I fear there is little chance now that they will ever be recovered.

I therefore request that you will be good enough to address the Superintendent of Revenue Survey and ask him if any copies of field books can be had in his office, if so I

Sir,

With reference to your letter of 30th Instant, No. 424, I have the honor to inform you that the Field books referred to therein are all original copies and the Superintendent of Revenue Survey is not therefore likely to have duplicates of them; I have, however applied to him for copies if available. Rs 150 for every square mile and looking at the large number of Field books I think the expense of a resurvey of those villages cannot be less than 3 or 4000 Rs and I have very serious doubts as to the recovery of the whole amount from the Revenue Inspector who lost them.

It is on this account that great care is always taken in despatching them to the Taluqs from this office. I do not see that the books can be of any use to anyone, but it is a most serious loss to Government. The Revenue Inspector must be made to understand this and I request that you will make a thorough and searching enquiry into the matter. The Revenue Inspector must be suspended pending enquiry.

Read the following letter from H Sewell Esquire, Acting Collector of Trichinopoly to C. A. Galton Esquire Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 22nd March 1876 No 68:–

Musiri Taluq
Taludalakatti
Kanniyakudi
Kaliyanankam

I regret to have to report, for the information of the Board the loss of the field books noted marginally. They were lost under the following circumstances

2. At the instance of the Tahsildar of Musiri the field books of the said three villages were sent to him carefully packed and sealed through the Divisional Officer for the settlement of certain disputes in those villages. The Tahsildar sent them to the Revenue Inspector who was to inspect those villages but the Inspector happening at the time to leave his head-quarters and proceed to the Trichinopoly Town for medical aid, the peon in whose charge the field books were sent carried the the sealed packet to the Town and there delivered it to the Inspector who had put up in a friend's house. The packet was all right and safe in the Inspector's lodging that night; but the next morning it was missing. The Inspector at once lodged information at the Police Station, and otherwise tried his best to get clue to the discovery of the stolen packet; but all that he did was of no avail. As the Inspector was responsible for the safe custody of the field books, I suspended him from office in view to his exerting himself to the best of his ability towards the recovery of the records. The Town Police Inspector was also directed by the Divisional Officer to enquire into the case carefully and do all he can towards the detection of the offence. The Police Inspector has reported his complete failure in his attempts; all that he could ascertain was that a stranger who is said to have slept on the outside pial of the house that night was suspected of having stolen the packet, thinking there was some thing of value in it; and that as no one knew his name or whereabouts, it was impossible either to bring the theft to light or to recover the records. The Divisional Officer who did all he could towards finding the lost records has now reported to say that the packet is hopelessly lost and that the Inspector is not at all to blame for. I shall not however, restore the Inspector to his office till I hear from the Board, but I am at a loss as to how to get copies of these field books, the Superintendent of Revenue Survey having sent me a reply that no copies of them are to be had in his office and that they were the originals. I have, however, applied to him again to know if he can prepare the field books from the original manuscript places from which the figures are said to have been copied into the field books the Revenue Inspector has agreed to bear all the expenses of the reproduction of the field books.

3. I have now stopped sending out these field books, and directed the Tahsildars to send up the parties concerned to get copies of entries in the field books to my office when required.

4. These field books are of the greatest importance in settling disputes arising from absence of field marks, and I should like to get duplicate copies made of them and distributed among the Curnams. If the Board approve of this suggestion, I shall submit an estimate of the cost of copying the field books for the whole district.

The loss of the field books by the Revenue Inspector seems to have been an accident for which he does not appear to be particularly to blame, though such valuable documents should have been more carefully guarded. He may resume his duties.

2. The Superintendent of Revenue Survey will be requested to give his opinion on the subject of the preparation of duplicate field books for lodgment with the Collectors when districts or divisions are surveyed.
