GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the Collector of North Arcot, dated 6th July 1883.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 24th July 1883, No. A.D.J.-148.

Certified that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for fifteen years nine months and twenty-one days, and that an invalid pension not exceeding Rs. 5 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, is admissible under Sections 102 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition). The calculations have been duly verified.

2. It will be seen from the history of service that there is a break in the continuity of the applicant's service extending over a period of nearly six years, viz., from 13th July 1865 to 3rd May 1871, caused by dismissal from the public service. On appeal the Government in their Order, dated 24th August 1869, Pension Department, directed the Collector of North Arcot to provide for the applicant's re-employment as soon as a suitable vacancy occurred, and observed that the dismissal would not prejudice his future right to pension. With reference to this order, should Government consider that the break in question is reconcilable under the provisions of Rule 2, Section 97, of the Civil Pension Code, it will need no condonation. Otherwise condonation of the interruption under Section 98 will be absolutely necessary before granting the pension recommended in the preceding paragraph.

3. The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Collector in his remarks opposite to No. 5 on the third page of the application.

4. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

ORDER—dated 10th August 1883, No. 719, Pension.

Under Sections 102 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Elatur Kumarasami Pillai, late Gumasta, Arcot Taluk, North Arcot District, an invalid pension of Rs. (5) five per mensem, payable at Wálajápet from 28th April 1883, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of fifteen years nine months and twenty-one days.

2. With reference to paragraph 2 of the Accountant-General's report, it is observed that the applicant's dismissal in 1865 was set aside by Government in 1869 with the remark that his dismissal was not to prejudice his future right to pension.

From 1869 to 3rd May 1871 he was employed in temporary appointments, and the Government are of opinion that the whole period, amounting to nearly six years in all, clearly falls within the provisions of Section 97, Rule 2, of the Civil Pension Code.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

CERTIFIED that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in {inferior superior} grades has been duly proved for 15 years 9 months and 21 days; and that an allowance {pension gratuity} not exceeding Rs. 500 per annum is admissible under Section 102, 110 of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified.

No. 148

It would be seen from the history of service that there is a break in the continuity of the applicant's service extending over a period of nearly 6 years viz. from 13th July 65 to 31st May 71 caused by dismissal from the public service. On appeal the Government in their order dated 24th August 71 by Petition Department directed the Collector of North Arcot to provide for the applicant's re-employment as soon as a suitable vacancy occurred and observed that the dismissal would not prejudice his future right to pension. With reference to this order, should Government consider that the break in question is not considerable under the provisions of rule 2 section 97 of the Civil Pension Code, it will need no condonation. Otherwise condonation of the interruption under section 98 will be absolutely necessary before granting the pension recommended in the preceding paragraph.

The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Collector in his remarks opposite to No 5 on the 3rd page of the application.
