No 4, Collector's Office, Bangalore -

At 10.30 on the 20th November 1876, a letter to the District Engineer came from the Officer to the Collector, Mr. Thomas, for signature - It appeared Row, from No 10, who used to take our bed in the gentleman's house, took his signature signature to the letter and both of us went & gave it to Subbanna-mayalgar, the writer, who was at home.

After perusing the letter he said, the officer being there over, he will give it the next morning, after getting it entered & numbered in the Office. At 6 A.M. the said writer went to writer Theiniasathan & having caused the letter to be entered & numbered, gave it to me at 6 1/2
A.M. - Starting from

Valluam

Valluam immediately, I reached Tanjore at 8.30 & having delivered the letter to the Engineer, returned to Valluam at 10. A.M. & informed the Gentlemen of the same. The Gentlemen was then in the Officer's room, it being the time for "report" - There said Appasamy Row & Daffadar were also in that room - The collector called them?
Daffadar & asked "What is the pay of these two?"
He said 8 Rs each.
The

The collector ordered that Theransa & Sookklopo should get a pass Rouis & my pay (2 Rs) respectively & that they should get their pay Rs 7-8 each. The Daffadar sent a note to the office accordingly. Since then my pay was entered as Rs 7- This is all that passed -
