R. C. Gordon Esq.
Examiner P. W. Accounts
Madras.

Sir:-

With reference to your No.
339 x 8/27th ultimo, I respectfully beg to be excused for again intruding on you with the same subject. I regret extremely that I should be obliged to importune you so much with my correspondence, but you will pardon me when I inform you that I am left without any alternative, as my affairs have reached a crisis. The truth is sir, that I am actually starving, and have no means of subsistence whatever.

I therefore most earnestly beg that you will have the kindness to call the attention of Government to my case, and request from them a a favorable reply. For which act of goodness, I shall be always grateful.

Hoping this appeal will receive your favorable consideration

I beg to remain

Sir

Your most obedt. servant
