14TH SEPTEMBER 1883, No. 832, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G.O., dated 22nd August 1882, No. 766, Pension.

READ—also the following paper :—

From W. AUSTIN, Esq., Acting Collector of Kistna, to the Accountant-General, dated Kondapalli, 21st August 1883, No. 2726.

One Gurazala Ramannah Pantulu, who was thrown out during the late revision from the post of Classifier, Ganjam Revenue Settlement, has been re-employed in this district as Jungle Gumastah, Vinukonda Division, since 5th June 1880.

2. He has subsequently been granted a compensation gratuity of Rs. 120 for his former service—see G.O., No. 766, Pension, 22nd August 1882; also your letter, No. A.B.J.-1042, 9th September 1882, authorizing payment.

3. Ramannah Pantulu is unwilling to receive the gratuity, in order that he may be allowed to count his former service for future pension under Section 176 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition).

He says that he was not aware at the time of his re-employment that he would get gratuity for his service in the Settlement Department; he did not, therefore, state his intention to refund the same immediately on re-entertainment.

The authority re-employing him did not for the same reason call the Gumastah's attention to this rule at the time.

4. The Jungle Conservancy Establishment since styled the "Forest Conservancy," in which the individual is at present serving, has been declared pensionable in G.O., No. 668, 21st April 1881, Revenue.

5. I have the honor to request that Government may be moved to rescind their order granting the gratuity in question, allowing the Gumastah the benefit of the rule quoted above.

No. J.A.E.-170.

Endorsement on the above.

Forwarded to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, for disposal.

31st August 1883,
