GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G.O., dated 9th August 1883, No. 717, Pension.

READ—also the following paper:—

From Lieutenant-Colonel T. K. GUTHRIE, Acting Inspector-General of Police, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Madras, 10th September 1883, No. 4650.

In reply to G.O., No. 717, dated 9th August 1883, Pension Department, I have the honor to report that the late First-class Constable, No. 4, P. Ramadoss Naidu, North Arcot District, was kept on light duty, such as sentry over the Treasury and Court guards from the date he was invalided.

2. By permitting him to prolong his service by four months and twenty-one days, he was enabled to retire upon a superannuation pension, the period necessary for the attainment of which was not exceeded. As his retirement was effected by means of a medical certificate, his pension was termed an invaliding one, though in amount it was the same as that which would have been earned by a voluntary retirement after twenty-four years' service.

3. The term "brief period" being, I respectfully submit, susceptible of considerable misinterpretation, it would perhaps be productive of benefit were Government to state the limit beyond which they would not wish to see the indulgence extended.

ORDER—dated 21st September 1883, No. 851, Pension.

Under Sections 102 and 143 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Punna Ramadoss Naidu, late First-class Constable, No. 4, of the North Arcot Police Force, an invalid pension of Rs. (4) four per mensem, payable at Chittoor from 2nd July 1883, in consideration of his qualifying Police service of twenty-four years and one day.

2. The retention of the applicant in service for four months and twenty-one days subsequent to the date of his being invalided has been sanctioned, and that period of service permitted to count for pension.

3. With reference to paragraph 3 of the Inspector-General's letter read above, the Government are not prepared to lay down any limit of time within which G.O., 1st June 1875, No. 279, may be held to apply. The question must be decided by the Inspector-General with reference to the circumstances of each particular case.
