8TH OCTOBER 1883, No. 902, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 20th September 1883, No. J.A.E.-197.

Pension Department.

In transmitting, herewith, letter from the Master Attendant, No. 8738, dated 10th instant, recommending that for certain reasons T. Venkataswami Nayudu, money-taker, attached to the Madras Pier establishment, should be permitted to retire on a compensation pension, equal to one-third of his average emoluments, I have the honor to state that it appears from the Master Attendant's letter that the pay of the appointment to which Venkataswami Nayudu is about to be transferred is only Rs. 12, while the pay of his present appointment is Rs. 17-8-0 a month. The appointment cannot, therefore, I think, be regarded as one which he can reasonably be expected to accept in satisfaction of his claims to pension (vide rules 1 and 4 under section 100 of the Civil Pension Code).

2. I am, therefore, of opinion that the recommendation of the Master Attendant may be accepted, provided the conditions for the grant of a compensation pension are duly fulfilled.

ORDER—dated 8th October 1883, No. 902, Pension.

Copy of the Accountant-General's letter, dated 20th Sept. 1883, No. J.A.E.-197, will be communicated to the Master Attendant, Madras, who will submit an application in the prescribed form through the proper channel on behalf of T. Venkataswami Nayudu.

SIR,

In transmitting herewith a letter from the Master Attendant No. 8738 dated 10th Inst. recommending that for certain reasons T. Venkataswan Nayudu, formerly attached to the Madras Pier Establishment, should be permitted to retire on a Compensation pension equal to $\frac{2}{3}$ of his average emoluments, I have the honor to state that it appears from the Master Attendant's letter that the pay of the appointment to which Venkataswan Nayudu is about to be transferred is only Rs. 12/- while the pay of his present appointment is Rs. 17-8-0 a month. The appointment cannot therefore I think be regarded as one which he can reasonably be expected to accept in satisfaction of his claims to pension. Vide rules 1 and 4 under section 100 of the Civil Pension Code.

I am therefore of opinion that the recommendation recommutation of the Master Attendant may be accepted, provided the conditions for the grant of a compensation pension are duly fulfilled. —

From

Master Attendant,

To
The Honorable C. Forster Webster
Chief Secretary to Government, Marine Department,
Fort Saint George.

Sir,

With reference to G.O. No. 346 marine, dated July 17th 1883, I have the honor to state that J. Venkataswamy Nayadu, Money Taker, attached to the Madras Pres., is one of those whose services will be dispensed with on the introduction of the levy of Harbours dues. His pay is Rupees (17-8-0) seventeen and annas eight, and in the Harbours establishment under the collector of Sea Customs, in which it is proposed to provide for the hands reduced in the Pier establishment, he will receive Rupees (12) twelve as a bonus. He finds himself unequal to the active duties of such a post, and does not wish to risk the loss of his pension on his present salary, which his service of 15 years and 7 months entitles

entitles him to an abolition of his office, and on which allowance he intends to retire and live in his village. After the exposure in all weathers on the pier during his long service, there is reason to believe his statement, and as he has always held a good character, I would recommend that he be allowed the benefit of the rules under which a compensation pension of one third of his pay on Rupees (5-13-4) five, annas thirteen, and pice four, may be granted him on abolition of office. The charge will be borne by Port Funds.

I have the honor to be
