15TH OCTOBER 1883, No. 922, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G.O., dated 19th December 1881, No. 1357, Pension.

READ—also the following papers :—

From the District Judge of North Arcot, dated 21st August 1883.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 2nd October 1883, No. A.D.J.-257.

Certified that should Government, with reference to rule 7, section 93 of the code, be pleased to commute the applicant's absence without leave from 1st to 14th September 1870 into leave without allowances, qualifying service in combined superior and inferior grades will be duly proved for twenty-nine years eleven months and sixteen days, and that an invalid gratuity, not exceeding Rs. 72, equal to six months' pay, will be admissible under sections 103, 117 (a), and 118 of the Civil Pension Code (5th edition).

The calculations have been duly verified.

Should Government, in consideration of the fact that the applicant's total period of qualifying service falls short of the minimum period of thirty years fixed for the grant of pension only by fourteen days, be pleased to condone the deficiency under section 120 of the code, he may be granted a pension, not exceeding Rs. 4 per mensem, under sections 103 and 117 (b) of the code.

The period of non-employment from 25th June 1881 to 15th January 1882 has not been viewed as an interruption entailing forfeiture of the applicant's past services under the terms of G.O., No. 1357, dated 19th December 1881.

The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the District Judge in his reply to this office objection memorandum, No. A.D.K.-99, dated 11th September 1883.

In accordance with rule 4, under section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 65 of the code.

ORDER—dated 15th October 1883, No. 922, Pension.

Under sections 103, 117 (b), and 118 of the Civil Pension Code (5th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Sholinghur Ranga Chari, late clerk, District Munsif's Court, Tirupati, an invalid pension of Rs. (4) four per mensem, payable at Tirupati, North Arcot district, from 22nd June 1882, in consideration of his qualifying combined inferior and superior service of twenty-nine years eleven months and sixteen days.

2. Applicant's absence for fourteen days without leave in September 1870 has been commuted into leave without allowances under rule 7, section 93 of the code.

3. The Governor in Council is pleased, under section 120 of the Civil Pension Code, to condone a deficiency of fourteen days in the applicant's service to enable him to draw the pension now sanctioned.

21st September 1883.

From

C. Ranga Rao,

To,

C. A. Bird Esquire,

Ag. District Judge,

North Arcot.

Sir,

With reference to the letter from the Accountant General to the District Court dated 11th Instant, No. ADK 99 regarding the Application for Pension of Sholinghur Ranga charlu late 9th Clerk of this Court, copy of which has been sent to me, I beg to submit the following:

As regards no. 8: A true copy of the applicant's Last Pay Certificate is herewith forwarded.

As regards no. 9: I made a report

to the District Court (Urzi no. 59 dated 24th June 1882) stating that the services of the applicant were dispensed with after allowing him to do his duty for 5 months and 6 days as directed in the Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, dated 19th December 1881, no. 1357, as I had been under the impression that the said Urzi no. 59 only would be sufficient for the award of pension to the applicant. On the 22nd November 1882 I received Official Memo.
dated 21st idem directing me to ascertain and report whether the applicant is intellectually and physically qualified to retain his appointment; and that Memo.
was answered by Urzi no. 111 dated 29th November 1882. I was, even then, under the impression that the first application
of

15 of the applicant was pending for final disposal. The applicant also was expecting the result of his first application till the 14th August 1883, when he put in a petition requesting me to have his pension awarded. Thinking that the first application, being one merely for gratuity, was not pending further orders I drew up and sent the present application for Pension on the 21st August 1883. Hence is the delay in submitting the application.

As regards no. 35: I allowed the applicant to remain in the service only for 5 months and 6 days, the period required according to the said Government Proceedings no. 1357, on the supposition that the required period (5 months and 6 days) was sufficient to complete the period of service for 30 years. Now it appears that the Accountant General has excluded the number of days (14 days from 1st to 14th September 1870) during which the applicant absented himself without obtaining leave, from the period of his service. According to the in-present calculation of the Accountant General 7 more days are required to complete the service qualifying for pension. The deficiency seems to have arisen owing to the calculation of the period of service by adding to the same the period of the said 14 days' absence without leave when the application for gratuity was examined and by excluding the said period of 14 days

14 days when the present application was examined.

I beg to remain,
