15TH OCTOBER 1883, No. 924, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From Lieutenant-Colonel T. K. GUTHRIE, Acting Inspector-General of Police, to the Secretary to Government, Pension department (through the Accountant-General), dated Madras, 17th September 1883, No. 4821.

I have the honor to submit, for orders of Government, an application for the grant of a gratuity to James McDermott, late an European head constable, No. 84, of the Malabar district.

2. He has served in the Police department for nine years six months and nine days, and has borne a good character. He is now unfit for further effective service of any kind, as certified on the 6th July last by the district medical and sanitary officer, Malabar. As there is no other qualified medical officer on the spot, a second medical certificate cannot be obtained.

3. He is entitled to an invalid gratuity of Rs. (315) three hundred and fifteen, payable at Calicut, according to sections 102 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code.

4. District medical and sanitary officer's opinion as to the normal prospects of life of the head constable is submitted.

5. An application from the head constable for gratuity (not pension) is also submitted for consideration.

6. The delay in the submission of this application is owing to a reference to the district medical officer having been found necessary regarding the head constable's prospects of life.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 28th September 1883, No. A.D.J.-253.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for nine years six months and nine days, and that, subject to the remarks below recorded, an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rs. 315, equal to nine months' pay, is admissible under sections 102 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (5th edition). The calculations have been duly verified. The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Inspector-General of Police in his letter, No. 4821, dated 17th September 1883.

2. In accordance with rule 4, under section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 65 of the code.

3. It will be seen from the medical officer's letter, dated 8th August 1883, that the applicant "has not the same prospects of life as an ordinary man should have at his age." It is for Government, therefore, to determine, with reference to rule 3, under section 99 of the code and the foot-note to the section, whether the gratuity admissible should be commuted into a pension or not.

4. The applicant's age is less than fifty-five years. Hence the gratuity due to him has not been reduced under the operation of the proviso under section 111 of the code.

ORDER—dated 15th October 1883, No. 924, Pension.

Under sections 102 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (5th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. James McDermott, late head constable, No. 84, of the Malabar Police force, an invalid gratuity of Rs. (315) three hundred and fifteen, equal to nine months' pay, payable at Calicut, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of nine years six months and nine days.

appearance about 45 years

I consider James M^c Dermott.

to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Police Department in consequence of being prematurely aged; to wit his incapacity does not appear to us to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits 1st he cannot walk fast or "double" and generally broken down. 2^{ndly} His mind is weak. I cannot say from observation that his premature ageiness has been due to intemperate habits.

Major F. Hale
Superintendent of Police
Malabar

Sir,

I beg most respectfully & humbly to bring to your kind notice the following circumstances with a view to my case being laid before the higher authorities. I was invalided on the 6th July 1883 as unfit for further service by the Civil Surgeon of Malabar and find from the Pensions Code that my gratuity of Rs 315 is liable to be commuted to a pension of perhaps Rs 2/8. I beg humbly to state that Calicut is a very expensive place & I have owing to ill health been compelled to take 3 months privilege

privilege leave lately while on leave I had to lay out money to try & regain my health and unfortunately not being possessed of any money and having a family to feed & clothe during these 9 1/2 years I had to borrow it. I regret my debts amount to more than 1000 and I am unable to pay it out of my small pension.

Committing my gratuity into pension
I submit is the greatest hardship to me and my family. With my gratuity I intended paying off my debts and going to Cuddalore as a cheap place where I would be enabled to live. I beg most humbly to point out that the Rules itself says it is not intended to cause hardship. The operation of the rule in my case would be condemning me to a life long long misery. I therefore crave you to represent this matter for me as the last act of kindness and request the Superior Authorities to bestow on me my gratuity instead of the pension.

I beg to remain,

Sir

Your most obedient servant

This is the gratuity earned but the medical officer says the applicant "has not the same prospect of life as an ordinary man should have at his age." This is not a very adverse certificate & it is thought gratuity & not commuted pension under sec: 99 rule 3 might be granted here. It has often been passed in much worse cases.
