The Collector having seen on the 5th Instant, certain Coolies kept in the SubMagistrate's Office at Vedaraniam, asked the Sibbandy peon Guruvarajah No 11 who was there, about them. He stated that they were brought there that morning, while it appeared from the Statements of the Coolies that they were detained there since the day before. The peon also admitted afterwards that his Statement was wrong and that they came the preceding day. Owing to the peon's misconduct in not having stated ~~that~~ truth at first; we have transferred him to the post of Maniam above referred to. You will have his name entered in the Baraward from the 11th Instant and arrange for the duties of the said post being done by him.

Yes

On enquiry the Collector in his reply to the reference quoted above, states that the applicant was allowed to retire before he was Certified by a Medical Officer to be unfit for further Service and when the matter was noticed in his Office, he called for an explanation from the Tahsildar but that in the meantime it was reported to him that the applicant died and he considered therefore that all further exertions were unnecessary.

The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Collector in his Memo dated 7th June 1883.

The applicant asked to be relieved of his appointment in favour of his son. He was accordingly relieved on the 17th Decr. 1882 & his son appointed in his stead.

2. The Collector observing that no medical certificate had been obtained, though the applicant was under 60 years of age called for one, but before it could be submitted, the applicant died on the 8th April 1883.

3. Under these circumstances this application for pension from the 17th Dec 82 to 8th Apl. 1883 made in favour of his heirs must be rejected but care should be taken in such cases to have it placed on record that the applicant voluntarily gives up his claim to pension by resignation or to refuse to accept such resignation otherwise than under the rules

Note above is a list of precedents. Under sec: 97 C. Pension Code Resignation forfeits past service. Resignation under any circumstances. In cases of this character the peon practically draws pension & pay if he gets his son or relation appointed. So well do the peons understand this that they never ask for anything till their nominee is safely installed when they ask Govt. to accept a post dated medical certificate in that case

I think para 4 of the suggested G.O. is right and necessary. It is not proposed to deprive persons of pensions already earned by them (as the Hon Mr fears) simply because they resign in favour of a relative; but to prevent a man who is not entitled to pension from resigning in favor of his son &c. & after a time applying for a S. certificate in view to obtaining a pension. contravention of rule 1 Sec 102 of the code & if they succeed think they have deceived the Collector who gave the post to their sons or relations. In cases where retiring allowance has been granted it has been against the report & certificate of the Acct. General. Most precedents & the most recent precedents have followed the rules. The other cases, it is submitted, gave pensions where this Govt. was not competent under secs: 131 & 132 of the Code to give them.

In this case there was no bargain. he said I am worn out & must go — please appt. my son.

[illegible] Reg 10 Quite true [illegible]

The Hon: Mr. Sullivan to again whether the order may issue with the addition of para 4 prop. orders [illegible] 11/10

Pension no: 1080.

Submitted that no one has said this. What is desired is that when men, by resignation, procure the appointment of their relations, they ought to be forced to stick to the resignation, not allowed to come up for pension afterwards.

The Hon: Mr. Sullivan

Hon Mr. Carmichael.

Where the rules require a medical certificate of incapacity before resignation ~~[illegible]~~ carrying a claim on pension can be accepted I approve the rules. What I object to is the dictum that the fact of a man's son or relative being appointed in his room deprives him of his right to pension. The poor ignorant people do not know what the rules are & it is a great shame to take advantage of their ignorance. An order should issue calling attention to the rule requiring a medical certificate & pointing out the consequences of a public servant's resignation being accepted prior to his incapacity being certified when he is under the prescribed age.
