Translation of an order issued by the Acting Collector of Malabar to the Tahsildar of Kadathnad No 105 dated Calicut 16th April 1858.

Read report No 68, dated the 7th Instant, submitting security bond executed by Puthiotil Chappa Atisti on behalf of Arakkalatam amsam Adhigari after the signatures of all the heirs having been obtained in the said bond.

Read also explanation submitted by the 3rd Gumastah for his omission to obtain in the bond the signatures of all heirs. The 3rd Gumastah explains that the omission was due to the requisite information not having been furnished by the amsam officials. Since the documents of such of the nature as are in question solely intended to make the Adhigari to hold himself responsible to a greater extent, ought to have been very carefully scrutinized and rendered complete, The gumastah has acted negligently in this case and on being questioned submits frivolous excuses. This is doubtless culpable. The Tahsildar recommends the gumastah for a light fine of 8 annas for such a serious offence. This cannot at all be tolerated. The gumastah is therefore suspended until further orders. Tahsildar should make arrangements to fill up the vacancy and he should also submit explanations for his recommending a light punishment to the gumastah for such a serious offence.
