Collector to the Tahsildar of Markapur.

The Service Register and the Last Pay Certificate of the applicant together with the copy of correspondence in connection with his suspension are enclosed.

2. When it is seen that the Taluq Gumasta Mysore Subba Rao has made an entry in the Taluq Register corresponding with the list of excess found on examination which is alleged by the dismissed Kurnam to have been submitted by him, though the said list was not signed or initialled by the Taluq Authorities, it becomes evident that the said Gumasta made the insertion with the view to screen the Kurnam from the Offence charged. From the fact that this item was not included in the total first recorded, but was shewn separately, it is clear that this had been omitted at first and entered subsequently. On asking the Gumasta in question how this happened, he says that he himself entered it by mistake and and corrected it subsequently, and that he does not know why as usual the said list was not signed by the Tahsildar &c, but this cannot be believed. It is for this reason and for the reason that the Sheristadar writes that there were no such corrections when he signed the accounts prepared by the said Gumasta who states that he has nothing further to say, the said Mysore Subba Ráo is suspended for three months from the 10th Instant. You are to submit your opinion in the matter of the appointment of a substitute for him.
