Sheikh Makhdum a Peon of that Taluk -

ing your services in the Augur Ternacular Record, Pay abstracts for the following 62 months are not what pay in those months?

Answer - In the following months, vizt. November and December 1846 - 2 February to December 1847 - 11

January and February 1848 - 2 I held the post of a peon at Walthar and other places on a monthly pay of Rs. 3 for the security of tobacco.

In March 1848 I was peon in the Catalali Choultry at Coimbatore. I have drawn pay in the Slikary

Cutcherry - In the following months vizt. from March 1848 to June 1849 - 16

January 1850 - 1
July 1850 to August 1852 - 26
November 1852 - 1

I was at Coimbatore and held the post of a peon in the Catalali Choultry on a monthly pay of 3 Rs. In December 1868 I was a peon in the Pollachi Taluk on 6 Rs per month.

Question - Were you suspended or dismissed or were your services dispensued with or did you obtain leave in the above months for which there are no pay abstracts?

Answer - I was not dismissed or suspended nor were my services dispensued with in the above months.
I do not remember whether I obtained leave for a month or two or not.

Question. Have you witnesses who served with you contemporaneously and who are aware of the Circumstances mentioned by you in this Deposition?

Answer - Shaikh Adam and Putta Muthu Naicken late peons of the Shikari Cutcherry are aware of my having held the above posts from 1846 to 1848 for which there are no pay abstracts. Shaikh Adam served with me. Stations were fixed at different places for the prevention of tobacco smuggling and a peon or two were attached to each station. They were also transferred from time to time.
So Shaikh Adam served with me.
In the neighbouring station Muthu Naicken served. I pray that they may be examined on the subject.
Parameswarayan of this Talug, late Jutwals' Goonastab and Narayana

Chetty residing at Pollachi, late Chroff in the Shikari Cutcherry who served with me are aware of my having held the post of a peon in the Jutwals' Choultry from March 1848 to December 1852 for which there are no pay abstracts. Putta Muthu Naicken the then Daffadar of the Pollachi Pollachi Talug and the peon Sriranga Naicken know the circumstances of my having held the post of a peon in the Pollachi Talug in December 1848. I heard this read out to me - it is correct.
