From

Collector of

H. L. Clogston, Esquire,
Assistant General
Madras

Sir,

With reference to your letter No A.D.K.
98
Pension Department, Verification Branch, dated the 21st ultimo, I have the honor to reply as follows:—

No 1. The Country name of the 1st applicant Saminatha Pillai is Madras and that of his father is the same.

No 7. Signatures have been duly affixed in the appropriate column on the 3rd page of the service books.

No 8. No press was ever entertained on the District Press Establishment, Madras; and hence, there is no list of the kind called for.

No 16. The Deputy Compositorship on

R. 30 having become vacant by the death of the permanent incumbent, arrangement was made sub-protem with effect from 2nd December 1882 to fill up the vacancy, in which the 2nd applicant was appointed to the 5th compositorship. On the 18th June 1883, all the persons concerned in the arrangement were confirmed in their respective appointments with retrospective effect. Thus, it would appear that the 5th Compositorship was fully vacant. None save the ^{2nd} applicant counted service in it during the period in question.

No 35 The services rendered in the capacity of apprentice were thought as counting for pension in the cases of the 2 applicants by reason of their being paid apprentices. As, however, such services are pointed out as non-qualifying, necessary alterations have been made in the 2 applications. By this revision, the net qualifying service of the 2nd applicant amounts to 2-10-4^{days}, which would not entitle him to gratuity under Section 121(a) of the Civil Pension Code, though a gratuity equal to one month's pay (Rs 12) may be allowed him under Section 113(a) on his Superior Service of 1-1-26^{year month days} only.

The two applications together with their enclosures and the letter under reply are returned herewith.

I have the honor to be
