Accountant General Madras

Sir,

In forwarding herewith application for an Invalid Pension on behalf of Periyasawmy Naidu, late 6th clerk of this Court, I have the honor to inform you that on enquiry I am told by the other subordinates of this Court, who have all along been serving with the applicant, that the fine of one rupee imposed on the applicant on three several occasions, viz in June 1877 and in August and October 1880 does not seem to be such as to affect the pension earned by the applicant. I am also informed that the records of this Court do not disclose why he was fined. The applicant seems to have fairly earned his pension and has not aware of anything against his character or conduct.

I have the honor to be
