GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers : —

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 30th May 1884, No. 3499.

Certificate and report from H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 4th August 1884, No. A.D.J.-112.

Certified that, subject to the remarks below recorded, qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 21 years 9 months and 7 days, and that an invalid pension, not exceeding Rs. 166-10-8 per mensem on Rs. 2,000 per annum, is admissible under sections 106 and 113 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (6th edition). The calculations have been duly verified. The Director of Public Instruction recommends the inclusion in the total period of pensionable service of 4 years 1 month and 4 days, the period of service spent in the Military Male Orphan Asylum, in view to entitling Mr. Bradshaw to a pension equal to half average emoluments. In support of the recommendation he quotes the case of Mr. Thompson, Mr. Bradshaw's predecessor, disposed of in Extracts from Minutes of Consultation, dated 23rd October 1856, Financial department. The services of Mr. Bradshaw in the Military Male Asylum were not paid by Government, and the rules in the Civil Pension Code do not admit therefore of the service rendered in the above institution being admitted towards pension. Should Government, however, be of opinion that Mr. Bradshaw should be granted the indulgence proposed by the Director the case should be submitted with this Government's opinion and recommendation to the Government of India in the Finance department, as required by section 136 of the Civil Pension Code.

In accordance with rule 4, under section 134, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 69 of the code.

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 11th September 1884, No. 6666.

ORDER—dated 5th November 1884, No. 1217, Pension.

Under sections 106 and 113 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (6th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. James Bradshaw, late First Assistant Master, Civil Engineering College, Madras, an invalid pension of Rs. (166-10-8) one hundred and sixty-six Annas ten and Pies eight per mensem, payable at London from 22nd March 1884, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of 21 years 9 months and 7 days.

2. The particulars relating to height, marks, &c., should be furnished before the first payment of pension is made.

3. The Government see no ground for submitting any recommendation to the Secretary of State for the grant of a pension in excess of that authorized by the terms of the code. It is observed that Mr. Thompson's was throughout treated as a very special case, and, even if Mr. Bradshaw's service as Head Master of the Asylum were allowed to count, he would still be entitled only to a one-third pension. The concession contained in paragraph 4 of the Honorable Court's despatch, No. 18, dated 5th May 1854, was strictly limited to Principals and Head Masters, and did not apply to service as a second master.

MEDICAL BOARD,

INDIA OFFICE,

5 Feb. 1884

We certify to have carefully examined Mr. James Bradshaw of the Indian Unconquered Service ~~and find that~~ His age is by his own statement 56 years and by appearance about 51 years.
Looking at all the facts of his case and his present condition, we consider that he is so far incapacitated for further service in India that we recommend that he be permitted to retire from the service of Government.
So far as we are in a position to judge, his incapacity has not been occasioned by irregular or intemperate habits.

Mr. James Bindshaw has served for 21 years

Govt. and is thus entitled under the Code to a pension of $\frac{1}{2}$ of average emoluments = Rs 166-10-8. The Dir. of Pub. Works, however, recommends him for a pension of $\frac{1}{2}$ = Rs 250, taking into consideration his ser-subsequently head master in the Military School at Phan Agium, amounting to 4 years 1 month & 4 days from August 1855 to Sept 1859.

present Lawrence Agium is not, a Govt. institution.
It was supported by funded capital and subscriptions supplemented by Govt. aid, and service therein is not recognised as qualifying for pension. The commendation on the ground

(1) that Mr. Bradshaw was specially sent out from England.

(2) that his predecessor had the ^{same} ~~same~~ ^{kind} of ~~kind~~ ^{benefit} another, was granted a pension.

As to the first ground it is pretty certain that ~~no pension was granted~~ ~~to Mr. Bradshaw~~ ~~because~~ ~~no hope~~ ~~was held out to Mr.~~ Bradshaw, when he was sent out, that he would be granted a pension, & the second ground is therefore the only one that will be discussed.

The case of Mr.
Thompson was throughout treated as a very special one.

Under the pension rules of 15th May 1851 Schoolmasters and others were not entitled to pension. But by para 4 of the Hon. Secy's despatch no 18 of 5th May 1854 ~~they were~~ placed principals and head-masters were placed on the same footing as Law Officers and Native Judges and admitted to invalid pensions of $\frac{1}{3}$ of the 15th years and $\frac{1}{2}$ after 22 years service. The concession

V. Emul. 21st January 1856 no. 28, 29. on Mr. Thompson's case.

Emul. 18th July 1854. no 882.

was strictly limited to principals & head-masters.
By the same despatch, para 9, superannuation $\frac{1}{2}$ pension were granted to "any unconvenanted servant belonging to a class recognised by the present rules" after 35 years without medical certificate.

It was observed in the letter to India that Mr.
Thompson had only served 24 years as head-master & the Asylum and that the letter was not wholly supported by Govt. Inasmuch however as it was "for the greater part supported by Govt." and the Mr. Thompson had served for 11 years in the army, it was recommended that he should, as a special case, be granted a superannuation pension.
A precedent was quoted, which was pointed out by the Govt. of India was inapplicable. Nevertheless the recommendation was supported by the Govt. and sanctioned by the Hon. Secy.

It should be observed that the question of what was ~~granted~~ Govt. long service & what was not would appear to have been rather unsettled at that time and that Govt. in their letter to India speak doubt-fully of Mr. Thompson's service as Asylum H. Master. Hence there for the record reported above they gave him the benefit of the doubt. The question has since been settled adversely to such and similar claims.
Even, however, if Mr.

Brooklyn's service as his headmaster should be admitted, there is ~~no reason~~ not the shadow of a ground why his service as second master should be allowed to count. At no time was it ~~ever~~ held that such a case is assumed that such service was permissible. He became headmaster same time in 1858. Saying it was in January. This would only add 1 year & months to his service and he would still only be entitled to find pension.

It is submitted therefore that there are no grounds for recommending / through the Govt. of India / any pension in excess of that admissible under the Code.

I have the honor to submit herewith an application for a certificate of graduation from the Medical College of the State of New York, which was presented to the Board of Regents of the State of New York, and was approved by them on the 10th day of June, 1880. Mr. Bradshaw's qualifications have been considered as commencing at 25 years of age and 11 days, but this includes service in the British India Army. He was 18th August 1854 to 17th September 1854 in which case he was transferred to the Civil Engineer late Court of Directors. The applicant has rendered good service to Government both as Mathematical Assistant in the Civil Engineering College, and as Inspector of Works in which capacity he acted on three several occasions. His retirement is not his voluntary act he having been declared unfit for further service in India by the Medical Board of the India Office, which has moreover declared that his incapacity has not been caused by irregular or intemperate habits. Under his services in the British India Army is included Mr. Bradshaw's case will be one of very great hardship. I would therefore strongly recommend his case for the special and favorable consideration of Government.

The grant of a pension to Mr. Bradshaw
