SERVICE BOOK

Extract from the Annual Report of the Superintendent of the District Jail, Tanjore, for the Calendar Year 1877, dated 1st January 1878.

Mr. A. S. Abraham has been in continuous Government service from the 15th June 1863 and was appointed as Clerk of this Jail on the 29th January 1877. His conduct in Jail has been very good. Previous character excellent. Is a very good and fast writer, thoroughly efficient in his duties. Reads and writes Tamil fluently. His entertainment in the Jail has been an acquisition.

Mr. A. S. Abraham, in the establishment of the North Tanjore District Sessions Court was entertained as 1st English Clerk. I have not had occasion to find any fault whatever with him since he joined the Court. In fact I had much pleasure in having him. I have already stated and in addition express my great regret that his valuable services are lost to this Dept. He

He has not availed himself of any leave
