To,

The Accountant General
Madras

Sir,

With reference to the letters Nos 43 of the 25th January and 293 of the 9th May 1884 from the late District Judge of North Sanjore forwarding an application with Service Register &c for Compensation — Pension on behalf of Mr R. A. Mellon, Head Clerk and Nazir of the said Court, I have the honor to state that he now informs me he has been appointed a Sub Inspector in the Salt Revenue Department and wants the said Service Register for being kept in the records of the Salt Department. I request therefore that you will be good enough to return the Service Register to me for being returned to the Applicant.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most Obedient Servant
