22ND NOVEMBER 1884, No. 1354, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From the Superintending Engineer, IV Circle, dated 23rd September 1884, No. 285.

Certificate and report from D. C. GORDON, Esq., Examiner of Public Works Accounts, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Madras, 27th October 1884, No. 851-A.R.

Certified that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 11 years 2 months and 16 days, and that an invalid gratuity, not exceeding Rs. 132 (one hundred and thirty-two), equal to 11 months' emoluments at Rs. 12 per mensem, will, under ordinary circumstances, be admissible under sections 106 and 113 (a) of the Civil Pension Code. But, as the applicant's qualifying service began after 20th January 1871 and after he attained the age of 25 years, and as he was pronounced unfit for further service in consequence of old age, debility and defective vision, it is for Government to decide whether he will only be entitled to an invalid gratuity not exceeding $\frac{1}{3}$ ths of Rs. 132 or Rs. 48-6-4, with reference to sections 106 and 113 note under section 113 of the Civil Pension Code.

2. In G.O., No. 1755, dated 7th July 1873, it is stated that the break in the applicant's service caused by his dismissal in September 1871 will be recommended for condonation, when his claim for pension "shall come up for disposal, if his conduct in the mean time be entirely satisfactory." Since then he was reduced from Rs. 20 to Rs. 12 per mensem on the 4th June 1875, for misbehaviour and unfitness for the appointment of second monegar; but should Government, with reference to Executive Engineer's remarks against entry No. 1 on the 5th page of the application, feel disposed to consider his case favorably, and to condone the interruption of his service from 21st September 1871 to 10th May 1872, under the ruling contained in section 102 (b) of the Civil Pension Code, the applicant will then have rendered a qualifying superior service of 17 years 3 months and 6 days, and will be entitled to an invalid pension, not exceeding Rs. 4 (four) per mensem, equal to one-third of his average emoluments, viz, Rs. 12, with effect from 10th January 1884, under sections 106 and 113 (b) of the Civil Pension Code.

3. The calculations have been duly verified. The invalid gratuity or pension, whatever may be sanctioned, is chargeable to General (now Provincial) revenues.

4. With reference to section 131, rule 4, attention is specially invited to section 69 of the Civil Pension Code.

No. 122. Read the following letter from Captain J. PENNYCUICK, R.E., District Engineer, North Arcot, to Colonel G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Vellore, 14th June 1873, No. 900:—

I HAVE the honour to request that the Government will be pleased to restore the former service of Annasawmy Modelliar, now second Monigar of the Cheyaur Anicut.

2. This man appears to have been dismissed in September 1871, and re-appointed by the Superintending Engineer in April 1872, the Government having in the meantime, on a petition from the Monigar, declined to order his re-instatement, and left the matter to the • Order of Govt. No. 803, dated 5th April 1872.

Do. 25th do. do.

discretion of the Superintending Engineer.

3. It appears now that, by the dismissal, he comes on re-appointment under the Examination Rules, and consequently can only draw Rupees 19-8-0 instead of Rupees 20, the proper pay of his appointment, besides losing the benefit for pension of his former service of about 23 years.

4. The fault for which he was originally dismissed was not a very heinous one, and may be held to be sufficiently punished by eight months loss of employment, and he has, since his re-appointment, given satisfaction to the Range Officer (the same on whose application he was originally dismissed), who supports his petition for restoration of service.

No. 123. ORDER THEREON, 7th July 1873, No. 1,755.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 13.

UNDER the circumstances of the case, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to exempt Annasawmy Moodelliar from the operation of the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination Rules, and when his claim for pension shall come up for disposal will, if his conduct in the meantime be entirely satisfactory, recommend to the Government of India that the break in his service be overlooked.
