Order from the Deputy Collector to the Superintendent of Sea Customs, Tellicherry of 22nd October 1872, N^o. 645.

It appears from your Report of the 17th Instant N^o. 15, that Peon Bappu of that Post being absent, was sent for and asked (as to the Cause of his absence), that he thereupon answered the Superintendent in a vociferous, haughty, disdainful and perfectly insubordinate tone that he should not be so questioned as the instance of others, that he was unwilling to continue in the service and that he would tender resignation of his office. It would further seem that Bappu was addicted to drinking, negligent of his duties and insubordinate in spite of repeated warnings.

For the reason of his own statement to the effect that he was prepared to tender his resignation Bappu should no longer be retained in the service. He is, however, suspended for 3 months. The Superintendent can nominate one to act for him. Report should be made as to the name of the person delected and the date of his appointment.
