Order from the Collector to the Sahildar of Betulnad Sahil.

Received Report n^o 12, dated 12th January and the records of investigation from Sheristadar Eressa Menon bringing to notice that on the night of the 16th January at 7.30 when the aghroff Kasturi Chetti was taking charge, from the village officials, of the amount of Dhann Kist as per Enasal, the Sahil Peon P. Chandu who was then the guard on duty, was found by the S^t off^r man Ayyappa to be inattentive and sleepy, that on being remonstrated by Ayyappa, Chandu in Contempt of the Office, abused Kasturi Chetti and the Said Ayyappa and attempted to Kick them, that Sheristadar Eressa Menon & others interposed and pacified Chandu, that as Chandu was already negligent of his duties on account of his frequent drunken habits, his state of intoxication at the time was proved by one Lassa Nargakan who perceived the strong smell proceeding from his mouth and recommending that Chandu should be degraded from the post of a peon to that of masalji as his dismissal from the Service will amount to a very severe punishment.

That Chandu has made use of abusive words as stated in the Report is proved not only by his own admission during the investigation but also by the evidence of the witnesses.

His explanation to the effect that the change in his demeanor, unlike what it was represented by the Sheristadar to be due to, was owing to exhaustion consequent on his having starved and visited the

Amsam

Amosams is not trustworthy. The Peon Chandu is guilty in having been inattentive to his public duties and negligent by the reason of drunkenness and in having insulted a public servant & attempted to commit a serious act of violence. If his outrageous conduct was not put down by the interposition of the Sheristadar and others there is reason in favour of a strong presumption for the occurrence of an assault. That this was all due to Chandu's drunkenness is strongly proved by the circumstances above mentioned. I do not think it advisable to retain a man of this character any longer in public service & accordingly order his dismissal in spite of the recommendation of the Sheristadar Dossa Memon to make Chandu a Masaljee on his pay. Lala, brother of Huzur Deluyot Tippi Khan is appointed to the vacant post with orders to appear before you. on his joining the badge should be given to him and his name entered in the pay list. He should be paid from the date he entered his duties, moreover, it appears that the Sheroff, Hasturi Chetti had also made use of some improper expressions. There is no reason, why insulting words should thus be exchanged between them. The Sheroff is wrong in having attempted to fall out with Chandu instead of representing the matter to his superior in office. But Chandu would seem more to blame the Sheroff is excused on this occasion. The acting acting Sheroff should be warned that severe notice will be taken in the event of a recurrence of similar act in future. all your subordinates should likewise be given to understand that due punishment will be awarded in case of any misconduct or irregularity.

Order from Mr. Bates, Deputy Collector to Mr. Ena Rosario, Superintendent of Sea Customs, Pomman.

It appears from your Report of the 1st Instant written at foot in reference to the order endorsed on miscellaneous Petition N^o 58 presented by Nuthamurti Kutti Assan, Merchant, that 8 bales of Jaffna tobacco mentioned in the said Petition were erroneously shipped owing to the inattention on the part of the peons whose names are shown in the margin.

As there was no other export or import at the port on the date this tobacco was shipped I am led to believe that the mistake was due to the carelessness of these peons. For the neglect of duty the two peons are accordingly suspended each for two months. Their badges should forthwith be taken from them. Kutti Assan also being guilty of gross negligence the document as requested cannot be granted. But as under the provisions of Sec: 191 of the Sea Customs Act, the said document can be given on payment of a fee of Rs 10, the fact should be communicated to Kutti Assan. The payment of the fee when tendered should be accepted and a Darrkast for the 8 bales of tobacco duly received. This should be entered in the Accounts. The Duplicate of the export Manifest N^o 1 granted on the 9th September for the 200 bales of tobacco shipped is herewith sent. An entry should be made therein of the 8 bales of tobacco.

A copy

A copy of this manifest signed by you with remarks showing the particulars should be given to Kitti Assan and its duplicate transmitted to this Office. order will follow regarding the arrangement to be made in place of the peons. dated 4th October 1864.
