Most Honorable Sir

In reply to the Accountant

General's letter Dated the 9th September 1884 No ADK 114
to the address of your Honorable Court and forwarded to me with your Honorable Court's proceedings Dated 6th October 1884 No 1766, I most humbly beg to submit the following information, therein called for.

No. 8. Service Books of all the applicants for gratuity are herewith submitted

No. 9. These men were thrown out of employ on 15th April 1884; Adjournment of Court then followed;
on the reopening of the Court necessary information
was gathered and the applications were submitted to the District Court on 15th July 1884.
There was also some delay in obtaining printed forms of applications. There is all this only 3 months delay but not 4 months.

No 17. Ten men were reduced - Each on Rs 6-0-0 per mensem, and a Deputy Nazir drawn given on Rs 25-0-0 a month in the reorganization.
The nett saving to Government by this reorganization

is thus No 35-... for Museum

No. 19. The eight persons that are here, have been sent to the Medical officer, and he gave personal marks of identification which are entered in proper places in the applications. Syed, Madana, and Madapally papayya are not to be found.

No. 21. Madapally, Ramapogi's detachment on temporary duty as an additional Amem from 1st February to 30th April 1875. was on the understanding that ^{when seen} the temporary duty should cease, he would revert to substantive appointment. The period ought not to have been rejected as non-qualifying. It has been now added to his service in the gratuity application. Departmental order is not to be found on the record.

No 23. Ganta, Papudu turned Mad from 1st March 1877. He was on leave on 1st April 1877. And his name was by mistake omitted from the annual return for 1877.

No 35. All the authorized leaves of these persons ought not to have been rejected as non-qualifying under the present rules. The omission is simply a mistake and the periods of such leaves are now added to their service in the application.

No 36.

8 of these persons were certified by the Civil Apothecary of this place to be unfit for further service on different grounds. A copy of the Medical officer's letter is herewith sent. The other two are Syed, Madana, Sahib, and Madapally papayya who are too weak. As the number of persons was reduced those that were to be retained, must be efficient men who could perform comparatively a greater amount of work. (vide High Court letter Dated 12th January 1884 No 106). An extract from it is herewith submitted.

I. And the District Judge personally examined all the men, and retained the most efficient of all and reduced the rest. In our opinion Syed Madana Sahib, and Madapally papayya were too weak to cope with the heavy work involved upon them under the rules of reorganization. They could not therefore be reemployed. I tried to get them now but they are not to be found. It is said that Papayya went to Vizagapatnam District and Syed Madana's whereabouts cannot be found out. They are not fit for reemployment.

Further it would take a long time to provide so many men turned out from all Courts and they would gladly accept gratuity rather than to wait a long time within which they might grow too old to work at all.

With reference also to my circular letter of the 18th December 1903 I am to state that in the case of employees likely to be thrown out in the revision now under consideration
seniority should, as a rule, be respected.
provided, however, that due care and discretion are exercised, advantage may be taken of the reductions to get rid of men who have shown themselves to be physically or
