GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers:—

From the Inspector-General of Police, dated 19th December 1883, No. 6525.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 28th January 1884, No. A.D.J.-402.

Certified that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 17 years 4 months and 15 days, and that an invalid pension, not exceeding Rs. 7-10-5 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, is admissible under sections 102, 109 (b), and 145 of the Civil Pension Code (5th edition). The calculations have been duly verified. The applicant's service was placed under the disposal of the Maharajah of Jeypore during the period from 1st March 1873 to 19th May 1874. The circumstances connected with the transfer are explained by the Inspector-General of Police in his reply to the reference made by this office in No. A.D.K.-164, dated the 8th January 1884. Under the explanation afforded this office has no objection to the suggestion made by the Inspector-General that the period should be viewed as leave without allowances.

2. Although the medical certificate declaring the applicant to be unfit for further service is dated the 15th August 1883, yet it appears from the Last Pay Certificate received with the application that he was retained in service up to 31st October 1883. The pension that may be sanctioned to him should, therefore, be made payable with effect from 1st November 1883.

3. In accordance with rule 4, under section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 65 of the code.

Order—dated 5th March 1884, No. 180, Pension.

Under sections 102, 109 (b) and 145 of the Civil Pension Code (5th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Jagan Mohana Patradu, late first-grade head constable, No. 58, of the Jeypore district, an invalid pension of Rs. (7-10-5) seven, Annas ten and Pies five per mensem, payable at Parlakimedi, Ganjam district, from 1st November 1883, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of 17 years 4 months and 15 days.

2. The retention in service of the applicant for 2 months and 15 days after the date of the medical certificate of unfitness is sanctioned.

3. Applicant's service from 1st March 1873 to 19th May 1874, a period of 1 year 2 months and 19 days under the Maharajah of Jeypore, has been converted into leave without allowances.

SIR,

With reference to the application for pension on behalf of Jagan Mohana Patrudu late a 1st grade Head Constable 2158 of the Jeypore Police received with your letter No. 6570 dated the 19th ultimo, I shall be thankful to enquire whether any sanction of Government was obtained for the applicants transfer to service under the Jeypore Maharajah from 1st March 1873 to 19th May 1874 as required by the provisions of Chapter III of the Civil Pension Code, if so, the amount of pensionary contribution paid by him should be stated and a copy of the order sanctioning the transfer should be furnished. If no such sanction was obtained, please explain your grounds for considering that the transfer does not deprive the applicant of his claim to reckon towards pension the service rendered prior to 19th May 1874.

To facilitate reference, the papers connected with the case are herewith returned.
