GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers:—

From the Officiating Secretary to Government, Military department, dated 21st January 1884.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 15th February 1884, No. A.D.J.-429.

Certified that qualifying service in inferior grades has been duly proved for 6 years 8 months and 8 days, but no gratuity can be admissible for this service, as the applicant had been discharged with a pension of Rs. 16-10-8 per mensem granted to him for his earlier superior service of 22 years and 10 months under G.O., No. 321, dated the 22nd June 1875, Pension department. The applicant retained this pension while holding his appointment as attender, Military department, Government office. The combination of the new service with the earlier service will place the applicant in respect of pensionary emoluments in a worse position. Hence no separate gratuity has been recommended for the subsequent service—vide rule 9, section 182, of the Civil Pension Code.

Order—dated 14th March 1884, No. 213, Pension.

The applicant being already in receipt of a pension of Rs. 16-10-8 in respect of his superior service of 22 years and 10 months, no further retiring allowance is admissible under the rules.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

29th November 1878, No. 571.

Gratuity.

Read the following papers:—

From W. H. COMYN, Esq., Collector of South Canara, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Mangalore, 8th July 1878, No. 1223.

In forwarding for the orders of Government the accompanying application for gratuity on behalf of Mahomed Yacob, late a Peon on the establishment of the Monegar of the Amindivi Islands attached to this district, I have the honor to state that, on his discharge from the Police Force in August 1867, the applicant appears to have received an invalid gratuity of Rupees 42 for his service up to that period, (vide G.O., 12th February 1868, No. 225.)

2. On the 1st of May 1871 the applicant was re-employed as a peon on the Revenue Establishment, in which capacity he continued with a short break till 21st March 1877, when he was removed from office for permanent incapacity for further service in consequence of heart disease.

3. He now claims gratuity for his subsequent inferior service of five years, nine months, and twenty-nine days in the Revenue Department, to which however he does not appear to be entitled under Rule 7, Chapter XX, of the Civil Pension Code, unless the Government are disposed to treat his case as a special one in consideration of his being now left in a helpless condition after having served Government for a period of nearly twenty-four years.

4. I beg to state that the delay in the submission of the above application is owing to the applicant having put in his petition applying for gratuity only on the 17th ultimo.

No. 29.

Certified that I have carefully examined Mahomed Yacob, son of Nizam-u-Din, Peon in the Amindivi Islands. His age is by his own statement forty years and by appearance about the same. I consider Mahomed Yacob to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind or in the department to which he belongs in consequence of heart disease. His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

MANGALORE,
22*nd March* 1877.

(Signed) A. F. DOBSON, M.B.,
Civil Surgeon.

No. A.D.J.—83.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

Certified that qualifying service in inferior grades has been duly proved for five years, nine months, and twenty-two days, and that an invalid gratuity is not admissible under the provisions of the Civil Pension Code (the calculations have been duly verified), as the applicant at the time of his re-employment in 1871 did not, as required by Section 94 of the said Code, refund the gratuity of Rupees 42 sanctioned to him by Government in their Order, No. 225, of the 12th February 1868, Judicial, for his former service of seven years rendered in the Police Department.

2. It is pointed out, however, that Rule 7 at the end of Chapter XX of the Pension Code cannot be applied to the present case, since the applicant is not entitled to pension, inasmuch as he has not completed the thirty years combined service required by Section 65; neither is he entitled to a higher amount of gratuity than Rupees 42, as his combined qualifying service in inferior grades amounts to only twenty-seven years entitling him to a gratuity of Rupees 36 less than the amount he received for his previous service in the Police Department.

3. The attention of Government is respectfully solicited to the explanation furnished by the Collector in paragraph 4 of his reply to this office memorandum, No. A.D.K-61, of the 20th ultimo, transmitted herewith, in respect to the applicant's removal from service in April 1873.

4. The cause of delay in the submission of this application has been explained by the Collector in paragraph 4 of his letter of the 8th July last accompanying.

Proceedings of Government, Pension Department, dated 4th April 1873, No. 205.

Read also the following papers:—

From the Superintendent of the Eye Infirmary, dated 6th May 1881.

No. A.D.J.-189.

Certificate and Report of Accountant-General.

Certified that qualifying service in inferior grades has been duly proved for five years, eleven months, and six days, and that no gratuity would seem to be admissible under the circumstances detailed below.

2. From G.O., No. 205, dated the 4th April 1873, it will be seen that the applicant had received a compensation gratuity of 40 rupees for her earlier service of ten years, ten months, and two days. The gratuity added to that admissible for the subsequent service, viz., Rs. 3, exceeds the maximum amount (30) allowable for the combined service amounting to sixteen years, nine months, and eight days, no gratuity therefore may be granted to the applicant separately for the subsequent service (vide Rule 9 at the end of Chapter XX of the Civil Pension Code, Fourth Edition).

3. The gratuity of Rs. 18 proposed by the Medical Department would seem to be through ignorance of Rule 6 of Section 76 of the Code.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

With reference to his report, dated 4th August 1881, No. A.D.J.-189, on an application for gratuity on behalf of Lutchmoo, late Female Ward Nurse, Eye Infirmary, the Accountant-General is requested to explain (1) why Rs. 30 is calculated as the maximum amount of gratuity allowable for the combined service of sixteen years, nine months, and eight days, when 40 rupees were given her for a service of ten years, ten months, and two days (vide G.O., 4th April 1873, No. 205), and (2) why the Fourth Edition of the Pension Code is quoted when it was superseded on 6th April last by the Fifth Edition. If the latter does not contain similar rules how can those quoted be now considered in force?

(By Order.)

(Signed) J. A. DAVIES,
Acting Under Secy. to Govt.

31*st August* 1881.

PENSION DEPARTMENT, 8TH OCTOBER 1881, No. 1029.

From H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 8th September 1881, No. J.A.E.-287.

With reference to Mr. Under-Secretary Davies' Memorandum, No. 63, dated the 31st August 1881, requesting me to explain why in the case of Lutchmoo Rs. 30 is calculated as the maximum amount of gratuity allowable for the combined service of sixteen years, nine months, and eight days, when 40 rupees were given her for a service of ten years and two days, I have the honor to state that although her service at the time of previous retirement amounted to nearly eleven years, yet her pay was Rs. 10, while her pay at the time of last removal was Rs. 6 only. Hence the gratuity calculated for the former service alone is Rs. 40, while that for the combined service is Rs. 30 (vide scale appended to Section 117 (a) of the Civil Pension Code).

2. Although the publication of the Fifth Edition of the Civil Pension Code is dated the 6th April 1881, the Head of the Office in which the applicant was employed could not have been furnished with a copy thereof on the 21st idem. Apparently, therefore, Lutchmoo must have retired under the provisions of the Code, Fourth Edition, which was accordingly quoted (vide Section 2 of the Civil Pension Code, Fifth Edition).

3. In all future reports, however, the Fifth Edition of the Civil Pension Code will be quoted, unless there be some change in the rules at the time of a man's retirement, when those rules only will be quoted.

ORDER THEREON, 8th October 1881, No. 1029.

It appears from the report of the Accountant-General that Lutchmoo, late Native Female Ward Nurse, is not entitled to any fresh retiring allowance, and the Honorable the Governor in Council sees no reason to treat her case in an exceptional manner.

2. The Government, while observing that the Accountant-General will make it do not agree with his reasons for quoting the Fourth Edition in the present case, as the general rule in future to quote the provisions of the Fifth Edition of the Code, the date of the petitioner's retirement (21st April) and the date of application for pension (6th May) were both subsequent to the date (6th April) of the publication of the Fifth Edition, which was therefore in force at the time.
