GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the Commissioner of Paper Currency, dated 22nd February 1884.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 25th February 1884, No. A.D.J.-448.

Certified that, subject to the remarks below recorded, qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 16 years 3 months and 17 days, and that an invalid pension not exceeding Rs. 10 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, is admissible under sections 102 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code, 5th edition.

2. It will be seen from the history of service that the applicant was employed as weighing man on the establishment of the late Madras Mint on pay of Rs. 14 a-month from 1st March 1867 to 12th August 1869. Section 89 of the code prescribes that the services of "weighing men in the mints (excepting the head weighing men)" should be treated as pensionable on the inferior scale. There were [however only two weighing men, one on pay of Rs. 14, and another on Rs. 12, a-month sanctioned for the late Madras Mint. Although no such appointment as "head weighing man" existed, the applicant apparently held the senior appointment, and this office has therefore treated his service in that appointment as qualifying for pension on the superior scale. It is also pointed out that, in the case of one P. Ponnumbalam, disposed of in G.O., No. 49, dated 4th February 1869, Government were pleased to treat the service as weighing man on pay of Rs. 12 a-month as qualifying for pension on the superior scale; but the Civil Pension Code was not then in existence. If this view be not accepted, the applicant's pensionable service will amount to 13 years 10 months and 5 days, entitling him to a gratuity only equal to 12 months' pay.

3. In accordance with rule 4, under section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 65 of the code.

ORDER—dated 21st March 1884, No. 244, Pension.

Under sections 102 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Tiruvalur Chinnaswami Mudali, late Note Receiver, Paper Currency department, Madras, an invalid pension of Rs. (10) ten per mensem, payable in Madras from 17th February 1884, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of 16 years 3 months and 17 days.

REMARKS BY HEAD OF OFFICE.

1. As to character and past conduct of Applicant. — Good.

2. Explanation of any suspension or degradation. — Charged from 7th March 1881 to 18th May 1881 for having applied for the benefit of the Insistent Act and, reinstated under G.O. 1463 dated 13th May 1881. Public Department.

3. Regarding any gratuity or pension already received by Applicant. See Chapter XIII. — None.

4. Explanation under Section 100, Rule 1, so far as the Head of the Office can give it. — Inapplicable.

5. Any other remarks. — Service rendered from record should be admitted.

6. Specific opinion of Head of Office whether the service claimed is established and should be admitted or not. (See Rule 6 under Section 127.) — Service claimed has been established from record and should be admitted.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

It is certified that, subject to the remarks below recorded, qualifying service in Superior Grades has been duly proved for 16 years, 3 months and 17 days; and that an Invalid pension not exceeding Rs 1000 per annum equal to 1/32 average emoluments is admissible under Sections 102 and 109 (b) of the Civil Service Code & Code of the late Madras Bank. It will be seen from the history of service that the applicant was employed as a weighingman in the late Madras Bank on pay of Rs 1400 a month from 1st March 1867 to 12th August 1869. Section 89 of the Code prescribes that the services of weighingmen in the Bank (excepting the Head Weighingmen) should be treated as pensionable in the Superior Grade. There were however only two weighingmen one on pay of Rs 1400 and another on Rs 1200 a month (functioned as the late Madras Bank. Although no such appointment as "Head Weighingman" existed, the applicant apparently held the Senior appointment and this office has therefore treated his service in that appointment as qualifying for pension in the Superior Grade. It is also pointed out that in the case of one S. Venkumalar, deceased of W. G. O. No. 149 dated 4th February 1869, Government was pleased to treat the service as weighingman on pay of Rs 1200 a month as qualifying for pension in the Superior Grade, but the Civil Service Code was not then in existence. If that view be not accepted, the applicant's pensionable service will amount to 16 years 10 months, and 5 days, entitling him to a gratuity only equal to 12 months pay.

In accordance with Rule 4 under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 89 of the Code.
