GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers:—

From the Registrar, High Court, dated 22nd October 1883, No. 3308.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 15th March 1884, No. A.D.J.-483.

Submitted to Government. The applicant's service in superior grades has been duly proved for 16 years 1 month and 1 day. He was considered by the head of his office as unfit and inefficient for active service, and an opportunity of the reduction of the establishment in the Judicial establishment was therefore taken to remove him from the service. It does not appear that when removing the applicant the Sub-Judge intended that he should be deprived of the pension to which he was entitled. The Registrar, High Court, is also of opinion that the removal should not be regarded as a removal for misconduct or inefficiency such as that contemplated in section 51 of the Civil Pension Code. Should Government, however, be pleased to concur with the Registrar in the above view, the applicant may be granted a compensation pension, not exceeding Rs. 11-10-8 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, under sections 100 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code.

2. The saving to Government effected by the abolition of the applicant's post is given in the reply to the reference made by this office in letter, No. A.D.K.-140, dated 12th November 1883, accompanying.

3. The character and past conduct of the applicant do not appear to have been thoroughly satisfactory. It rests with Government to decide whether any reduction should be made in the amount of any pension that may be sanctioned to him.

Petition from P. Seshayya Naidu, dated 6th March 1884.

Order—dated 31st March 1884, No. 269, Pension.

Under sections 100 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Puchakayala Seshayya Naidu, late second writer, sub-court, Bellary, a compensation pension of Rs. 11-10-8 per mensem, payable at Cuddapah from 1st April 1879, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of 16 years 1 month and 1 day.

2. It is observed that in his letter, No. 32, dated 19th July 1879, the District Judge declined to submit the applicant's claim to pension. Hence the very unsatisfactory delay which has occurred in the disposal of the case. The attention of all heads of departments will accordingly be drawn to G.O., 3rd September 1877, No. 4 in which the Government wholly reserved to themselves the right to reject such applications.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 12th February last, No. $\frac{\text{A.D.K}}{179}$ enquiring if any saving is still available for meeting the cost of the pension of P. Seshaya Naidu, I have the honor to inform you that the revision of Judicial Establishments in 1879 in which Seshaya-naidu lost his appointment, left a saving, as then calculated, of Rupees 1770 a year or Rupees 147-8-" a month (vide para 6 of G.O. 19th November 1878, No. 2343.)

2. But in 1882, when the Establishments of certain Courts were strengthened, this saving was reduced to Rupees 1044 a year or Rupees 87 a month (G.O. 9th March 1882, N 244), which appears to be now available and is more than enough to cover any pension that may be granted to the applicant.

No credit appears to have been taken for this sum of Rupees 87 in the re-organization sanctioned under G.O. dated 4th December 1883, No. 3197.

Sir,

Referring to the foot-note dated 19th November last of the District Court to the Accountant General's letter No. $\frac{A.D.K.}{140}$ of the 12th Idem, Pension Department, I have the honor to submit the several explanations therein called for.

2. As to No. 2 – The necessary information has been filled in the column headed "How verified" on the 2nd page of the application.

3. As to No. 4 – The several kinds of leave of absence enjoyed by the applicant have been inserted in the Service Book and in the application forwarded with the above communication –

4. As to No. 5 – The reason for termination of service in each appointment has been inserted in the Service Book and the entries thus made have been duly attested as required.

5 As to No. 6 - The certificate called for has been appended to the application.

6. As to No. 7 - The signatures of the applicant and head of Office have been inserted in the appropriate columns of the Service Book.

7. As to No. 8. The last pay certificate of the applicant is herewith transmitted

8. As to No. 17 - The applicant having been considered inefficient for active public service and having been also ordered to retire on a pension, no endeavours were taken to provide an appointment for him. As to the amount of saving effected to Government by the abolition of his appointment in the revision of Establishment, I cannot decidedly give any expression of my opinion. The total amount of expenditure for the Establishment before the Revision of Establishment was Rs. 558, and it has been reduced to Rs. 400-0-0 in the Revision, the total savings thus effected being Rs. 158-0-0. This saving not being utilized by the Court, it is, in my opinion, available to meet the payment of the monthly pension of the applicant.

9. As to No. 19 - Personal marks to facilitate identification have been inserted in the appropriate column of the Service Book.

10. As to No. 24 - Applicant's leaves, suspensions and interruptions have been, in detail, exhibited on the 2nd page of the application as required.

11. As to No. 29 - The necessary abstract Statement called for is hereto appended in respect of the service rendered in the Cuddapah District.

12. As to No. 35. The leaves of absence and suspensions have been distinctly shown on the 2nd page of the application.

Submitted to Government. The applicant's service in Superior Grades has been duly proved for 16 years 1 mo and 1 day. He was considered by the Head of his Office as unfit and inefficient for active service and an opportunity of the reduction of the Establishment in the Judicial Establishment was therefore taken to remove him from the service. It does not appear that when removing the applicant the Sub Judge intended that he should be depriv of the pension to which he was entitled. The Registrar High Court is also of opinion that the removal should not be regarded as a removal for misconduct or inefficiency such as that contemplated in Section 51 of the Civil Pension Code. Should Government however be pleased to concur with the Registrar in the above view, the applicant may be granted a Compensation pension not exceeding Rupees 11-10-8 per mensem equal to 1/3rd average emoluments under Sections 100 and 109(b) of the Civil Pension Code.

The saving to Government effected by the abolition of the applicant's post is given in the reply to the reference made by this Office in letter No. A.J.K./140 dated 12th November /83, accompanying.

The Character and past conduct of the applicant do not appear to have been thoroughly satisfactory. It rests with Government to decide whether any reduction should be made in the amount of any pension that may be sanctioned to him.

1. Yeshayya Naidu was suspended on two occasions, once for having implicated himself in a disturbance which took place in the Court-house & the second time for having absented himself to attend the Court during the Mid-Summer vacation of 1877, when the Court was specially ordered to try & dispose of Criminal Cases in the late famine, but, however, he was restored to his appointment on both the occasions, as the punishments he had undergone were thought more than enough. He also held good testimonials from the Superiors whom he had served under, but the little laches, which he had evinced on the two occasions referred to, could not, in my opinion,

Order—

[illegible] 2d Writer P. As however writer Sashiah has been under suspension for a month ~~[illegible]~~ I will not this occasion deal more harshly with him, but he is warned to be very careful for the future, or it will become my paramount duty to take the severest notice possible of any future delinquency or misconduct on his part.—

From

J. A. Davies Esquire,
Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras.

To

The Honourable C. G. Master,
Chief Secretary to Government.
(through the Accountant General)

Honourable Sir,

Punchakayala Seshayya Naidu was second clerk in the office of the Subordinate Judge of Bellary and on March 31st 1879 had completed 7 years, 2 months and 20 days inferior service, and 19 years, 3 months and 29 days superior service, in all, 26 years, 6 months and 19 days service.

2. On revision of establishment his services were dispensed with from 1st April 1879, and the Subordinate Judge recorded an order in the following words.

"As

"As Second writer Seshayya Naidu was considered unfit and inefficient for active service and as his attendance was always irregular and work was irregularly done, it was thought necessary that he must be thrown out in the new scale, and this was sanctioned by the District Judge. When Seshayya Naidu presents a complete list of services, he will be recommended for pension or allowance as the case may be."

3. Mr Wilkinson, Acting District Judge, included the name of P. Seshayya Naidu in a list of persons "entitled to superannuation and retiring pensions or gratuities" and a list of his services was awaited.

4. Mr Nelson succeeded Mr Wilkinson, and in letter No 32 dated 19° July 1879, called attention to the remarks recorded by the Subordinate Judge, and expressed an opinion that Seshayya Naidu was not entitled even to a compensation pension. Mr Nelson accordingly withdrew his predecessor's list and substituted a nil statement.

5. Seshayya Naidu, thereupon, petitioned Government for reinstatement, and on August 2nd 1879 received an endorsement referring him to the High Court. He petitioned the High Court who on 26° August called on the Acting District Judge for report. The District Judge in his reply dated 2nd September referred to his letter of 19° July.

6. Mr Nelson's letter of 19° July 1879 was then considered by the High Court. The Court on 19° September 1879 passed an order declining to interfere.

7. On July 27th 1883 a petition was presented by Seshayya to the High Court praying for a pension or gratuity. ~~His~~ This was referred to the District Judge of Bellary and Mr Goldingham in letter No. 150 dated 19th September 1883 recommends that the case be submitted for the compassionate consideration of Government.

8. I am therefore directed to submit the application for compensation pension for the orders of Government. It will be observed that this case does not fall under Section 51 of the Pension Code, as Seshayya Naidu was not removed because he was inefficient, but was selected for removal on reduction of establishment. The officer who gave this reason considered that he was entitled to pension, and if Seshayya Naidu had then applied for pension instead of petitioning for reinstatement he might then have obtained a pension.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

(4) ORDER THEREON, 31st March 1884 No. 269

UNDER Sections 100 and 109(b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Poochakayala Seshaiya Naidu late 2nd Writer Sub. Court Bellary a Compensation pension of Rupees 11-10-8 per mensem payable at Cuddapah from 1st April 1879 in consideration of his qualifying superior service of sixteen years, one month~~s~~ and one day~~s~~.

It is observed that in his letter no 32 d/. 19th July 1879 the District Judge ~~refused~~ declined to submit the applicant's claim to pension. Hence the very unsatisfactory delay, which Applicant's services were dispensed with on a reduction of establishment. It is thought, therefore, that although he was then described as useless & inefficient he may be granted the compensation pension he had served for viz. Rs. 11/10/8. He was twice suspended but not for serious offences.
