GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From Lieutenant-Colonel T. K. GUTHRIE, Acting Inspector-General of Police, to the Secretary to Government, Pension department (through the Accountant-General), dated Madras, 21st December 1883, No. 6592.

I have the honor to submit, for orders of Government, an application for the grant of a gratuity to Joey Mahanty, late a 1st-class constable, No. 84, of the Ganjam district.

2. He has served in the Police department for 12 years 1 month and 18 days, and has borne a bad character. He is now unfit for further effective service of any kind as certified by the medical committee held at Berhampore on the 29th October last.

3. He is entitled to an invalid gratuity of Rs. (36) thirty-six, payable at Chatrapur, according to sections 102, 144, and proviso to section 111 of the Civil Pension Code.

4. His age, according to the entry made opposite to No. 15 on the 1st page of the application, is about 44, according to his own statement before the medical committee 50, and according to the opinion of the committee about 55. Doubt having thus arisen as to how the gratuity was to be calculated, the case was referred for the opinion of the Accountant-General: on receipt of his reply, which is herewith submitted, it was decided to calculate the gratuity according to proviso to section 111 of the Civil Pension Code. If Government are not pleased to admit the age as 55 years, the constable will be eligible for the full amount of gratuity Rs. 90.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 12th January 1884, No. A.D.J.-382.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 12 years 1 month and 18 days, and that, subject to the remarks below recorded, an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rs. 36, equal to 12 months' pay multiplied by the fraction $\frac{1}{3}$, is admissible under sections 102, 109 (a), 144, and the proviso to section 111 of the Civil Pension Code, 5th edition.

2. The calculations have been duly verified.

3. The applicant's age, according to the entry made opposite to No. 15 on the 1st page of the application, is about 44 years, according to his own statement before the medical board 50, and according to the opinion of the medical board 55 years.

Should Government be pleased to admit the age as 55 years, the applicant would be entitled to a gratuity of Rs. 36 only as recommended in the preceding paragraph; otherwise a gratuity, equal to 12 months' pay, would be admissible to him.

4. It is observed from the remark opposite to No. 1 in the 3rd page of the application that the character and the past conduct of the applicant have been recorded as "bad." It rests therefore with Government to make such reduction in the amount of gratuity that may be sanctioned to him as it may deem proper with reference to rule 1, section 65 of the code.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

With reference to his letter, dated 21st December 1883, No. 6592, the Inspector-General is requested to report particulars in regard to the alleged bad character of late 1st-class constable J. Mahanty.

(By Order.)

25th January 1884.

(Signed) E. S. LAFFAN,
Ag. Under Secy. to Govt.

From Lieutenant-Colonel T. K. GUTHRIE, Acting Inspector-General of Police, to the Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Madras, 22nd March 1884, No. 1517.

With reference to official memorandum, No. 8, dated 25th January last, from the Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, calling for particulars in regard to the character of constable Joey Mahanty of the Ganjam district, I have the honor to report that Mr. Arbuthnott, Acting Superintendent, states that before the constable was invalided, Mr. Ross, the Superintendent of the district, placed on record that the constable's conduct in a recent case had been disgraceful, that there was no doubt he took money and did his best to prevent the detection of the case, and that he was utterly untrustworthy.

ORDER—dated 2nd April 1884, No. 274, Pension.

Under sections 102, 109 (a), and 144 of the Civil Pension Code (5th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Joey Mahanty, late 1st-class constable, No. 84, of the Ganjam Police force, an invalid gratuity of Rs. (90) ninety, payable at Chatrapur, Ganjam district, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of 12 years 1 month and 18 days.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No. 1283 dated 7th December 1883, I have the honor to state that Mahant's age according to the entry made opposite to No. 15 in the 1st page of the application is about 44, according to his own statement before the medical officers 50, and according to the opinion held by the Medical Board it is 55 years. If the Government are pleased to admit the age as 55 years according to the opinion expressed by the Medical Board, the case would fall under the proviso to Section III of the Civil Pension Code. Otherwise, Mahant would be eligible to claim the full amount of the gratuity, notwithstanding the fact that he entered the Service after the 20th January 1871 and after he attained the age of 25 years.

The enclosures to your letter are herewith returned.
