GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From the Collector of Anantapur, dated 23rd February 1884, No. 318.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 13th March 1884, No. A.D.J.-480.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 23 years 11 months and 19 days, and that (subject to the remarks below recorded) a superannuation pension not exceeding Rs. 6-10-8 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, is admissible under sections 106, 109 (b), and 111 of the Civil Pension Code, 5th edition. The calculations have been duly verified.

2. It is observed that, in consideration of the applicant's long service extending over a period of about 24 years and of the fact that owing to reduction of establishment he had to be employed as acting dufterbund on pay of Rs. 7 a-month from 21st November 1860 to 13th September 1861, the Collector, in paragraph 2 of his letter, No. 318, dated the 23rd ultimo, recommends that the deficiency in service, which disentitles the applicant to a pension equal to half average emoluments, should be condoned. It is pointed out, however, that this recommendation cannot be accepted, in the first place, it is not known whether the vacancy in which the applicant was employed as dufterbund during the period mentioned above was permanent or temporary. Admitting that it was a permanent vacancy, the period of the applicant's service in the appointment is 9 months and 23 days; and of this Government can condone a deficiency to the extent of 4 months and 26 days only (vide 2 (a), section 120 of the Civil Pension Code). This period of service being added to the pensionable service, the total period of the applicant's service will amount to 24 years 4 months and 15 days, or $7\frac{1}{2}$ months less than the period of service necessary for the grant of a pension equal to half average emoluments.

3. It is further pointed out that the applicant was granted leave on medical certificate from 14th April to 3rd July 1879 when he was not entitled to it, having attained the age of 55 years—vide section 45 of the Civil Leave Code. Government may perhaps exempt him from the liability to refund the amount of absentee allowance drawn by him during the above period with reference to the views expressed in G.O., No. 239, dated 15th March 1882, Pension department.

4. The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Collector in paragraph 4 of his letter quoted above.

5. In accordance with rule 4, under section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 65 of the code.

ORDER—dated 2nd April 1884, No. 275, Pension.

Under sections 106, 109 (b), and 111 of the Civil Pension Code (5th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Bookkapatam Seshagiri Rau, late head gumastah, taluk cutcherry, Dharmavaram, a superannuation pension of Rs. (6-10-8) six, Annas ten and Pies eight per mensem, payable at Dharmavaram from 1st August 1883, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of 23 years 11 months and 19 days.

2. Inasmuch as the leave allowances drawn in contravention of section 45, Civil Leave Code, were passed prior to the issue of G.O., No. 239, dated 15th March 1882, the amount will not be deducted from the pension now sanctioned.

3. The deficiency in the applicant's service for a pension equal to half average emoluments is large, and the Government are unable to accede to the Collector's recommendation for the reason given in the Accountant-General's report.

calculations have been duly verified. The pensioner is chargeable to the Government.

It is observed that the pensioner has been duly proved for 23 years 11 months and 58 days of the Civil Pension Code. The pensioner is admissible under Section 106, 109 (6) of the Civil Pension Code. The pensioner is not exceeding Rs. 6 10 8 per mensem, is admissible under Section 106, 109 (6) of the Civil Pension Code. The pensioner is not exceeding Rs. 6 10 8 per mensem, is admissible under Section 106, 109 (6) of the Civil Pension Code.

Admitting that it was a permanent vacancy, the period of the applicant's service in the appointment is 9 months and 23 days; and if the Government can condone a deficiency to the extent of 4 months and 26 days only (vide 2(a) section 120 of the Civil Pension Code) this period of service being added to the pensionable service, the total period of the applicant's service will amount to 24 years 4 months and 15 days or 7 1/2 more than the total period of service necessary for the grant of a pension equal to half average emoluments.

It is further pointed out that the applicant was granted leave on Medical Certificate from 14 April to 3 July 1899, when he was not entitled to it, having attained the age of 55 years. (vide section 45 of the Civil Pension Code) Government may perhaps exempt him from the liability to refund the amount of absence allowed drawn by him during the above period with reference to the views expressed in G.O. No. 239 dated 15 March 1892 Pension Department.

This delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Collector in para 14 of his letter quoted above. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to the

SIR,

In forwarding an application for pension on behalf of one Bakkapatnam Pechagiri Rau, Head Pundita Dharumavaram Taluk, I have the honor to state that his service including interruptions, amounts to 26 years, 3 months and 23 days, and dates as shewn in his Service Register from the 1st April 1857. According to the statements in his application he appears to have been in the service of Government prior to that date.

2. He was a Zilla Karakoon in this District until the 20th November 1860, when, owing to reduction of establishment, he was appointed Dufferbund on Rs 7, and had to be an inferior servant for 9 months and 23 days. His actual Superior Service is 23 years, 11 months and 19 days. Interruptions in his service amount to one year, 6 months and 11 days. In consideration of his long total service and the fact that owing to reduction of Establishment he had become an inferior servant, I venture to recommend that the deficiency of time which disentitles the applicant to half pension, may be condoned under sections 98 and 120 of the Civil Pension Code.

3. As the applicant is over 60 years of age, the Divisional Officer has certified regarding his unfitness for further service.
