G.O., dated 13th November 1880, No. 2123, Financial.
Petition from Mooniram Naidu, late vaccinator, North Arcot district, Ranipett,
Hassanallipett, dated 24th November 1883.

No. 5.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

With reference to the enclosed two petitions from Mooniram Naidu, late first-class vaccinator, Trichinopoly Local Fund Board, to whom a gratuity of Rs. 180 was sanctioned in Financial G.O., 13th November 1880, No. 2123, the Accountant-General is requested to be good enough to ascertain and report whether the petitioner's alleged service in the Commissariat department for a period of about 14 years as a measuring-man and military bazaar peon can be verified either from the records of the Commissary-General or Controller of Military Accounts, or whether any affidavits from applicant and contemporary employes could be obtained so as to entitle him to a pension for his combined service in the Commissariat department and Trichinopoly Local Fund Board.

(By Order.)

19th January 1884.

(Signed) E. S. LAFFAN,
Ag. Under Secy. to Govt.

To the Accountant-General, with two petitions and enclosures.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 13th March 1884, No. A.D.J.-479.

Submitted to Government with reference to official memorandum, No. 5, dated the 19th January 1884.

2. It will be seen from the above statement of service that the applicant's total period of service rendered in the Military department up to October 1859 is 15 years 11 months and 27 days. The causes of the breaks in the continuity of the service in October 1850 and in October 1859 have not been explained in the Controller's letter quoted above. The Controller is of opinion that the applicant's claim for a retiring allowance in respect of service rendered in the Military department should be considered as invalidated, inasmuch as his (applicant's) services were dispensed with prior to the date from which pensionary advantages were granted to inferior servants of that department.

3. Assuming that the two breaks are due to abolition of appointments in consequence of reduction of establishment, and that the applicant can claim the right to combine his earlier service with his subsequent service in the Medical department, the total period of such combined services amounts to 29 years 6 months and 14 days, i.e., 5 months and 16 days less than 30 years, the minimum period prescribed for the grant of pension to inferior servants—vide section 117 (b) of the Civil Pension Code. Hence the applicant appears to be entitled to no more than the gratuity of Rs. 180, equal to 12 months' pay, already granted him in G.O., No. 2123, dated 13th November 1880, Financial, in consideration of his subsequent service rendered in superior grades extending over a period of about 13 years.

4. In his letter to this office, dated the 23rd July 1880, the applicant states that he was entertained in 1860 as third-class vaccinator in the Kurnool district. But his service up to February 1865 is not borne out by the annual returns on record in this office.

5. The papers connected with the case, received with Proceedings of Government, No. 168, dated 29th February 1884, are herewith returned.

Proceedings of Government, No. 24, of 6th January 1874.

In returning the accompanying papers received with your No. I.A.E.-324 of 28th January 1884, on the memorandum, No. 5, of 19th idem, from Government, Pension department, I have the honor to inform you that the services of Mooniram Naidu in the Military department have been verified from the records of this and the Commissariat Examiner's offices as marginally indicated. The services of the above individual having been dispensed with on the 26th October 1859 prior to the date from which pensionary advantages were granted to inferior servants in the Military department, his claim to pension is, I consider, invalid.

ORDER—dated 9th April 1884, No. 298, Pension.

The petitioner is informed that his inferior service in the Military department does not qualify for pension or gratuity; and that, even if it did, the rules of the code do not admit of the grant to him of any retiring allowance in excess of the gratuity already sanctioned.
