SIR,

In acknowledging receipt of G.O Financial Department dated 28th Ultimo, No. 435, Miscellaneous, I have the honor to report that I have issued orders reinstating A. Kēsava Rau, as Tahsildar of Dharmavaram and to recommend that he may be compelled to retire under Section 106 of the Civil Pension Code, for the following reasons:-

2. Kēsava Rau attained his 55th year on the 24th August 1881 and continued to serve, without any formal orders, until 17th June 1882, when his further retention in service was sanctioned by me on the recommendation of the then Head Assistant Collector Mr. Thorburn, who remarked that he "found him (Kēsava Rau)" still to be tolerably efficient". Thus he remained in service up to 31st December 1883 when he was more than 57 years and 4 months old.

On 19th January last the present Head Assistant Collector informed me that Késava Rau desired to be retained in Office until he was 60 years old. The Head Assistant Collector added "I cannot recommend this indulgence as his work has not been well done."

For many months past Késava Rau's inefficiency, resulting from a decay of powers consequent upon advanced age, so frequently forced itself upon me that I could only consider that he should be made to retire on pension, in the interests of the public service, immediately on the expiration of the Extension period.

3. The necessary pension application was submitted to Government through the Accountant General on the 5th February 1884.

I have the honor to be

Your most Obedient Servt,

SIR,

In Continuation of my letter No. 2650 dated 19th December last and with reference to your Treasury Deputy Collector's letter No. 1623 dated 6th idem, regarding the Services of A. Kesava Row I have the honor to state that in the list of Services accompanying the letter, Kesava Rao is mentioned to have been Tahsildar of Dhurmavaram from the 9th January 1874. - From his Service Register he would appear to have entered on his duties as Tahsildar of that Taluk on the 16th January 1874. But both these dates seem to be incorrect; for in the Huzur Copy of the Baravard of the Dharmavaram Taluk for the above Month, there is a remark by the Taluk authorities to the effect that Kesava Row received charge of the Taluk from B. Narasimha Charlu at 10 o'clock in the afternoon of the 16 January 1874. This Baravard has been checked and audited by the Huzur Office and in token thereof it bears the signature of Mr B. A. Blake the late Treasury Deputy Collector Bellary. There is also an entry in it in red ink apparently made in the District office which if translated would stand.

Narasimha Charlu from 1st to 16th	Rs - A - P 105 - 5 - 7

SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith an application for pension on behalf of A. Késava Row, Tahsildar of Dharmavaram.

2. His services in the Judicial Department from the 9th July 1850 upto 31st May 1863 have been verified from the Diary (extracts enclosed) of the District Court Bellary. As these afford no information as to the pay and allowances drawn by the applicant in the several appointments held by him during the period, the District Judge has been requested to furnish at an early date the necessary particulars to this office and his reply will be transmitted to you soon after its receipt here. The applicant's services in the Revenue Department date from the 5th June 1863. The interval of 4 days (i.e.) from 1st to 4th June 1863 appears to have been spent by him in joining his appointment at Ramandrug situated about 40 miles from Bellary. No pay was disbursed to him for these days by either department. But this break will not entail the forfeiture of past service under para 1, Section 97 of the Pension Code. The Collector of Bellary has furnished a list of the applicant's services as ascertained from the Huzur Pay Abstracts (English) — from 5th June 1863 up to 31st March 1882 (Vide his Treasury Deputy Collector's letter No. 1623 dated 4th December 1883 herewith sent). The remaining portion of the service has been verified in my office. The overpayments referred to in the list accompanying the Bellary Treasury Deputy Collector's letter have, for reasons stated in your letter No. L.A.C./2 dated 19th January 1884, been found to be no overpayments at all. The Treasury Deputy Collector, Bellary, has on a reference from this office furnished certain information in his× letter No. 102 dated 21st January 1884, in modification of that previously furnished by him in his letter No. 1623 dated 4th December 1883. In the list accompanying the letter last mentioned it is stated that Kesava Row's services as Tahsildar of Dharmavaram commenced from the 9th January 1874. But in the Huzur copy of the Taluk Baravard (enclosed for subsequent return) for January 1874, which was audited and checked by the Huzur Treasury Officer, it is clearly stated that Kesava Row took charge of the Taluk in the afternoon of the 16th January 1874. A further reference has been made to the Collector of Bellary, on this point (Vide copy of this office letter No. 98 dated 23rd January 1884). His reply to this reference will be communicated to you upon its receipt in my office.

FOR ORDERS.

This officer was ordered by the Collr. to retire, but by G.O. Finl. 28th Febr. 1884. No. 435. A. was directed by Govt. to be reinstated pending the submission of his case for the orders of Govt. A subsequent order, G.O. Finl. 13th March 1884. No. 352. directed that on the receipt of the Pension application a medical certificate should be called for in the Pension Dept. Orders are now requested whether this is to be done or not: It will be seen that the Collr. certifies the applicant to be "inefficient from a decay of his powers than than would be discernible

I would accept the Collector's recommendation - Kesava Rao was an efficient officer when I knew him but age of course tells. He has been kept on as long as he was able to do his work -

I am inclined to agree with the Secretary's note at first that it was for Rev. to decide whether the man should be retired or not. H.L.S.

by a surgeon's examination but within my knowledge and belief." Under sec. 106 rule 4. such a certificate as this is all that is required and a medical examination is unnecessary. The civil surgeon could not pronounce on the applicant's general efficiency and mental ability, matters in regard to which it has always been usual in such cases to accept the Collr's assurance. Please see precedents in G.O. 22nd March 1873. no 191 and 8th May 1877. no 236.

W.S. E.M.

I submit further that the question whether a Tahsildar should retire or not when past 55 years of age is one for the Dept. which appoints him viz. Revenue, & that the Financial Dept. had no business to interfere in the case.
