J. J. Thompson Esq. Civil Judge: "He (Subraw) always has borne a very high character. I know that he speaks six languages. I have had ample opportunities of observing him. He is a remarkably clear headed man, has great skill in finding out what a witness says or means and summarises fittingly & well, there is no man in whose accuracy I have great faith, there are perhaps many who would not intentionally deceive, but there are few who are so scrupulous in assertion. He is painstaking, quiet and methodical, & is always ready to answer question on any part of record & justify his answer. When he thinks that I am wrong he never hesitates to point it out. He was employed for many years on the Civil side before & after the introduction of the Civil Procedure code and has passed the required examination. x x x. I have no doubt he will be found an efficient & upright officer." 7-4-1864.

2nd class Junsiff.

Remarks by J. Walhouse Esq. dated 7th March 1872

" I can add nothing to the above various testimonials in his favour. He has now been longer in one court than I think any Junsiff should be, and on a fitting opportunity should be transferred to a new field."

Remarks by J. W. Best Esq. civil judge, in his letter to the High Court dated 31st August 1875.

" As this particular Junsiff is a man who brings to the discharge of his judicial functions undoubted ability & industry and also, I believe, integrity, I hope that the mere fact of his want of knowledge of English will not be allowed to stand in the way of his promotion when an opportunity may occur."
