During the period Hanoomon Singh acted under me, I had every reason to be satisfied with the manner in which he discharged his duties. As Sub-Magistrate his calendars were generally correct and summaries clearly expressed. I think his abilities as Sub-Magistrate are above the average and that he is well fitted for the post. Hanoomon Singh was Sub-Magistrate in the town of Vellore for about 15 months, during the time I was Acting Sub-Collector of North Arcot. I found him very hard working and as a rule his judgments in Magisterial cases were sound. His knowledge of English is very good.

I never had a single complaint against him, and I had every reason to suppose him to be a thoroughly upright Magistrate up to the time of my leaving the District. His being able to record the whole of the depositions of a case in English greatly facilitates the hearing of appeals from his decision.

H. Hanoomon Singh, late Town Sub-Magistrate here afforded me most substantial aid in the distribution of Mansion House funds last year. Prior to the Mansion House Committee undertaking the distribution of the Gosha relief much irregularities had existed regarding it. Hanoomon Singh was appointed President of the Sub-Committee for the distribution of Gosha relief and devoted much time and attention to the investigation of the numerous claims which were made. The Committee were much indebted to him for his assistance generally which from his intimate acquaintance with the Town was most valuable while the principal share in the distribution of the Gosha relief fell to him and I have therefore much pleasure in certifying to his zeal and intelligence.

Reply to the Accountant General's memo No $\frac{A\ Dk}{184}$ dated 12th February 1884 on the application for gratuity submitted on behalf of H. Hammaun Singh, late Dy Tahsildar of Maderpak.

1 The difference in the year of birth of H. Hammaunsing as given in the service book, and in the application for gratuity, and as alleged by him in a petition addressed to me under date the 20th November 1883, has already been enquired into, and that given in the application was adopted because it agrees with the year given in the Annual Return of Establishments of 1880 to 1883, one of which was signed by Hammaunsing himself. I now enclose for the Accountant General's information, copy of my Treasury Deputy Collector's letter No A dated 12th January 1883 and of my docket No 99 of the 18th idem explaining the circumstances under which the above conclusion was arrived at. As no documentary evidence in regard to the correct date of birth of Hammaunsing is available two affidavits, one signed by himself and another by a friend of his named Teagaroya Mudaliyar before one of the Presidency Magistrates declaring that Hanumantsing was born in the hot season (March or April) of 1843, are herewith forwarded. On further consideration and taking into account the fact that he is entered in 1879 as between 36 & 37 years of age I think that 1843 may be taken as the date of his birth. There is no special reason for recommending that the deficiency still left in his service be condoned.

2. The Certificate prescribed in Rule 3 Section 99 of the Civil Pension Code and obtained from a Medical Board at Madras is herewith forwarded.

3 The applicant was, in an order issued to the Tahsildar of Chendragiri under date the 16th April 1874, confirmed in the appointment of Taluq Sheristadar of Chendragiri and was as stated by him, prevented from joining his permanent appointment as he was not relieved of the charge of his then acting appointment of Dy Tahsildar of Tirtani, but he was allowed to count service in the former.

former appointment only from the 20th May 1874, the date on which he actually joined his permanent appointment and from which he was allowed the full pay thereof; As the post of Taluq Sheristadar of Chendragiri was a full vacancy in consequence of the retirement from service of Raja Rao, the late Taluq Sheristadar of Walajah on the 16th April 1874, the applicant's claim for service for pension from the above date would appear to be a valid one.

4. The Service Book is herewith retransmitted with the entries regarding the applicant's absence on leave duly attested.

5 Hanumantsing retired from service on the 26th October 1883 but the verification of his services could not be commenced until the 22d November 1883 on which date his Service Book, which was with Hanumantsing himself, was received in the Account Department. The interval between the last mentioned date and 12th January 1884 (the date of the submission of the application) which included Christmas Holidays was occupied in verifying the services of the applicant which in this District amounted to about 10 years and the instalments in which the Gratuity of Rs 315 already received by him were refunded into the Treasury. Hence the delay in the Submission of the Application.

Hanoomon Singh was Sub-Magistrate in the town of Vellore for about 15 months, during the time I was Acting Sub-Collector of North Arcot. I found him very hard working and as a rule his judgments in Magisterial cases were sound. His knowledge of English is very good.

I never had a single complaint against him, and I had every reason to suppose him to be a thoroughly upright Magistrate up to the time of my leaving the District. His being able to record the whole of the depositions of a case in English greatly facilitates the hearing of appeals from his decision.

H. Hanoomon Singh, late Town Sub-Magistrate here afforded me most substantial aid in the distribution of Mansion House funds last year. Prior to the Mansion House Committee undertaking the distribution of the Gosha relief much irregularities had existed regarding it. Hanoomon Singh was appointed President of the Sub-Committee for the distribution of Gosha relief and devoted much time and attention to the investigation of the numerous claims which were made. The Committee were much indebted to him for his assistance generally which from his intimate acquaintance with the Town was most valuable while the principal share in the distribution of the Gosha relief fell to him and I have therefore much pleasure in certifying to his zeal and intelligence.

During the period Hanoomon Singh acted under me, I had every reason to be satisfied with the manner in which he discharged his duties. As Sub-Magistrate his calendars were generally correct and summaries clearly expressed. I think his abilities as Sub-Magistrate are above the average and that he is well fitted for the post. His calendars were written in English.

The Collector of

Sir,

With reference to your letter No 1718 dated 7th November 1883, I have the honor to forward herewith for your approval and submission to Government through the Accountant General draft application for gratuity on behalf of H. Hanuman Sing, late Dy Tahsildar of Madspak division.

2. The qualifying superior service of Hanuman Sing amounts to $\overset{yrs}{13}-\overset{m}{3}-\overset{d.}{4}$ for which he is entitled under Section 109(a) of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition, to a gratuity of 12 months' pay equal to Rs 840 which is the amount of gratuity proposed in the draft application.

3. In the accompanying petition addressed to you under date the 26th November 1883 Hanuman Sing states that on account of under age he has to serve 5 or 6 months more to complete the service required to entitle him to an invalid pension of 1/3rd of his average pay and requests that, in consideration of his arduous famine service, the Government may be requested to condone this deficiency.

4 In the Service Book which accompanies the application and which appears to have been prepared in 1879, the date of Hamman Sing's birth is stated to be not known no horoscope being available but his age at the time is given as between 36 and 37 years. In a petition addressed to me under date the 21st November 1883 herewith forwarded for your perusal and return, he states that he was born in April 1843. In the Annual Lists of Establishments (Moyenzapitals) submitted to the Accountant General for 1880 & 1881 Hamman Sing's date of birth was given as June 1844 and in those for 1882 and 1883 as the year 1844 and I enclose for your perusal and return the annual list received from the Madapak Division for 1882 and signed by Hamman Sing himself wherein the date of his birth is given as 1844. As in the Annual Lists already furnished to the Accountant General the date of Hamman Sing's birth was shewn as June 1844 and 1844 and no satisfactory explanation is given by Hamman Sing himself as to why the above date should not be adhered to, I have entered the date of his birth in the present application as "June. 1844".

5. Taking "June 1844" as the date of birth, Hamman Sing's service from 19th March 1863 to 31st May 1866 had to be excluded as period not reckoned as service in consequence of his having been under 22 years of age until the latter date and the service required to qualify for 1/3rd pension is thus less by 1 year, 8 months and 6 days.

6. As the service of Hamman Sing is one paid from General Revenues a deficiency in such service can be condoned by the Government of India when it does not exceed 12 m or the Local Government when it does not exceed 3 months under Section 120 (2) of the Civil Pension Code but as the deficiency in the present case exceeds one year, no note has been entered in the draft application recommending any condonement as required in your endorsement on his petition alluded to in para 2 supra.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that Mr Cox, the Head Assistant Magistrate brought to my notice that Hanuman Singh Sub Magistrate of Maderpauk lately sent up to him one Siddugadu a prisoner convicted of a theft of a cow, for enhanced punishment and that although the prisoner had pleaded guilty before the Sub Magistrate he earnestly protested before him (Head Assistant Magistrate) that he was innocent and had been compelled by the Police to confess in consequence of having been severely beaten. The scars of blows on the prisoner were plainly visible to the Head Assistant Magistrate although the Sub-Magistrate had stated in his judgement that he could not observe them. The Apothecary at Ranipet certified that the scars on the person of the prisoner were the result of severe blows inflicted about a fortnight previously. The Sub Magistrate on being called upon by the Head Assistant Magistrate furnished an explanation of his conduct in the case, translation of which is herein enclosed. The Head Assistant Magistrate considers it as most unsatisfactory and I entirely agree with him.

2. I sent for Hanuman Singh and took from him a statement copy of which accompanies this report and from which it will be seen that the Sub Magistrate admits having failed to examine the person when he complained to him of the ill treatment he had sustained at the hands of the Police but nevertheless the prisoner ventured to record in his judgment that there were no marks of violence on his body.

3 Numerous instances having come to my notice in which the Police had resorted to torture in order to extort confessions from prisoners I caused a Circular to be published in the District Gazette dated 10th December 1875. c

enjoining on all Sub Magistrates the necessity for carefully examining the prisoners brought before them for trial and who complained of ill treatment ——— directing that should any marks of violence be shown or found on their persons to send them to the nearest Medical Officer for treatment and report as to the nature and cause of such wounds or marks. Copy of that order is appended.

4. Hanuman Singh was well aware of the existence of the order and yet in the present case, although the prisoner had complained to him that he was beaten by the Police, the Sub Magistrate did not take the trouble to examine and see if his statement was true. On the other hand he falsely recorded in his judgment that he had observed no marks of violence on his person. It is evident that Hanuman Singh has been guilty of a very serious dereliction of duty in having in defiance of express orders omitted to examine the prisoner's person for in that case he could not have failed to notice the mark of severe beating that were visible when the Head Assistant Magistrate has seen. For this gross neglect of duty I beg to recommend that Hanuman Singh be now suspended from Office for one month an entry to that effect being made in his Service Register.

5. In February 1881 Hanuman Singh was attacked with Hemipligia (Paralysis of the side). Having been certified by Dr Pope then Zillah Surgeon to be unfit for duty he was granted six months leave on Medical Certificate and he went away to Madras. He rejoined his appointment in September last without appearing before me or the Divisional Officer and I was not aware until I saw him on this occasion that he had not completely recovered from the disease. When however he now appeared before me to give the statement referred to in para 2 I found him to be incapable of walking even a few paces without much difficulty and his power of speech was also defective. I at once sent him to the Civil Surgeon for examination and Dr. Ratton reports in his letter× dated 18th Instant No 66 that he is still unfit for duty though it is possible he may in course of time recover the full use of his limbs and voice and recommends a further period of six months sick leave and he suggests the advisability of his being sent to the General Hospital in Madras, for treatment with the proviso that he should not again return to duty without a Medical Certificate declaring that he is perfectly fit for work. I beg accordingly to recommend that Hanuman Singh be granted 6 months leave from the date of the expiry of his suspension recommended above directing him immediately to report himself at the General Hospital for treatment. He will of course be warned that when returning to duty he must produce a discharge Certificate from the Medical Officer in charge of the General Hospital pronouncing him
