GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers :—

From the Collector of Anantapur, dated 11th February 1884.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 13th March 1884, No. A.D.J.-481.

Submitted to Government. It will be seen from a perusal of the accompanying correspondence that the applicant in August 1880 resigned his appointment in favor of his son, and that the Head Assistant Collector, who accepted the resignation, did not consider the question whether or not the applicant should be granted any pension for his long service extending over a period of about 39 years. The age of the applicant, when resigning the appointment, was only 55 years. To award an invalid pension to an inferior servant of that age, the incapacity for further service must be established by a medical certificate. In the present case such a certificate was not obtained until nearly three years after the applicant disconnected himself with the public service. The Collector, however, states that the takid of the Head Assistant Collector contains nothing to warrant the presumption that the officer did not intend that the applicant should be granted pension. On the contrary the wording of the resignation letter clearly shows that he resigned the service on account of his advanced age, and that his request to grant his post to his son is only in conformity with the custom obtaining among that class of public servants. Should Government, keeping the Collector's opinion in view, be pleased to accept the medical certificate dated 3 years and 14 days after the applicant ceased to do duty, qualifying service in inferior grades will be duly proved for 39 years 4 months and 17 days, and an invalid pension not exceeding Rs. 3 per mensem, equal to half pay, will be admissible under sections 102 and 117 (b) of the Civil Pension Code. But it rests with Government to fix the date of commencement of pension with reference to rule 1, section 163, of the code.

2. The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Collector in his letter, No. 1953, dated 26th September 1883, and the further delay in its disposal by this office is due to repeated references which had to be made to the Collector, whose last reply was received in this office only on the 28th ultimo.

3. In accordance with rule 4, under section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 65 of the code.

Order—dated 6th May 1884, No. 353, Pension.

Under sections 102 and 117 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Beegala Gangunna, late peon, Penukonda taluk, Anantapur district, an invalid pension of Rs. (3) three per mensem, payable at Penukonda from 18th August 1880, in consideration of his qualifying inferior service of 39 years 4 months and 17 days.

2. The medical certificate, dated nearly 3 years after the applicant ceased to do duty, is accepted under section 128, rule 2, of the above code.

No. 281.

From Accountant General

Dated 188 .

FOR ORDERS.

The applicant, a taluq peon of Penukonda, resigned the service in favor of his son in August 1880, but made no application for pension, and the head assistant collector, on the ground doubtless that pensionary claims were forfeited by resignation, took no action for the purpose of obtaining pension. In January 1883 the applicant applied for pension. Much time was spent in enquiring into his case and verifying his services and in Septr 1883 a medical certificate of complete and permanent incapacity was for the first time obtained. As the applicant was an inferior servant and only 53 years of age when he retired, no invalid pension could be granted except on medical certificate, which

I want to put a stop once for all to these perpetual references in regard to the claims of inferior servants, especially peons, to pension. The tendency of office notes is generally to make the ignorant peon suffer for what is in reality the fault of the Division or taluq officer. I have laid down over & over again that a public servant who has qualified for pension does not forfeit his claim because the officer in whom the patronage vests appoints a relative in the room of the retiring incumbent. The word resignation is harped upon because the Code says that resignation involves the forfeiture of past service but it does not say that was not obtained until 3 years and 14 days after his resignation. Orders requested whether under these circumstances pension should be granted. Applicant is not strictly entitled to any under the Code, and though it is of course within the ~~power~~ discretion of Govt. to accept the medical certificate, yet such acceptance would be opposed to Rule 1. Section VI (6th edition) of the Code. In a similar case pension was refused by G.O. 23rd July 1883 No 653, and though in other cases (precedents put up) pension has been granted, yet it is submitted that this was done as an act of grace and that the grant of pension in such cases is in contravention of the letter & spirit of the pension rules.

E.L.

A man who has qualified for pension loses his claim when he applies to retire from the public service — It is a common case as every one who has served in the Mofussil knows for this class of servant to come forward and say "I will retire if you'll give my "son" the place" in nine cases out of ten it is a very good arrangement in the interests of the public service & of the individual immediately concerned who merely resigns his pay and not his hard earned claim to pension

A G.O should issue to the effect that in such cases a public servant wishing to vacate should be directed to apply for pension and this application should be forwarded at once backed by the necessary documents —

In this case qualifying service for 39 odd years is proved and the man is clearly entitled to his pension from the date on which he ceased to draw pay — That the application for pension backed by a Med: Certificate was not sent in earlier was the fault of the officer who permitted him to retire.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

No. A Df / 481. Submitted to Government. It will be seen from a perusal of the accompanying correspondence that the applicant in August 1880, resigned his appointment in favor of his son, and that the Head Asst. Collector, who accepted the resignation, did not consider the question whether or not the applicant should be granted any pension for his long service extending over a period of about 39 years. The age of the applicant, when resigning the appointment was only 55 years. To award an Invalid pension to an Inferior Servant of that age, the incapacity for further Service must be established by a Medical Certificate. In the present case such a Certificate was not obtained until nearly 3 years after the applicant disconnected himself with the Public Service. The Collector however states that the Takid of the Head Assistant Collector contains nothing to warrant the presumption that the officer did not intend that the applicant should be granted pension. On the contrary the wording of the resignation letter clearly shows that he resigned the Service on account of his advanced age and that his request to grant his post to his son is only in conformity with the custom obtaining among that class of public Servants. Should Government keeping the Collector's opinion in view, be pleased to accept the Medical Certificate dated 3 years and 14 days after the applicant ceased to do duty, qualifying Service in Inferior Grades will be duly proved for 39 years 4 months and 17 days; and an Invalid pension not exceeding Rs 3 - - per mensem equal to ½ pay will be admissible under Sections 102 and 117 (b) of the Civil Pension Code. But it rests with Government to fix the date of commencement of pension with reference to Rule 1 Section 163 of the Code.

The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Collector in his letter No. 1953 dated 26th Septr 1883 and the further delay in its disposal by this office is due to repeated references which had to be made to the Collector, whose last reply was received in this office only on the 28th Ultimo.

In accordance with Rule 4 under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.
