The

9. The delay in the submission of the application for pension is due to reference having had to be made to records of so old a date as 1859, & some time having been ^{spent} in efforts to account for the break in the service, and to repeated references having to be made to the 1st Assistant Superintendent Madras Survey, regarding the verification of the services of the applicant.

11. The applicant was removed from the service on account of incapacity from old age, in proof of which a medical certificate was obtained. A fresh certificate, as prescribed by the civil pension code is sent herewith.

15. The affidavit and contemporary evidence is also enclosed.

17. The application being for an invalid gratuity under Section 102, Chapter 9 of the Civil Pension Code, information as to whether endeavour was made to provide applicant with a suitable appointment, or abolition of his post, appears to be unnecessary, such information being required only in case of a Compensation gratuity.

18. Not having known the applicant during his service, I am unable to say anything as to the character of the applicant beyond what I have already said, but as nothing appears against him in the records, it may be assumed, I should say, that gratuity should not be withheld on this account.
