Enclosure. -

NELLORE,

Collector's Office.

29th April 1884

FROM

D. S. V.

The Ag. COLLECTOR OF NELLORE.

To

The Accountant General, Madras.

SIR,

In reply to your letter No. S. A. C. of the 34
24th Instant, I have the honor to state that the pension application of the peon, N. Nagadas, was filed by him on the 27th June 1883 before the Tahsildar of Adiyagiri, and it was sent through the Head Assistant Collector to this Office on the 24th September 1883. Besides this, there were 4 other similar applications received about that time for verification in this Office. The verification of these applications, as you are aware involves involves considerable labor and generally, loss of time, in as much as pay abstracts of different departments, in which the applicants had served, over a long period of 30 or 40 years, have to be procured and gone through for the purpose.

Of the applications above referred to 4 were verified and forwarded to you on the ^{1. . . . 14-12-83}
^{2. . . . 31-12-83}
^{3. . . . 12-1-84}
dates given in the margin, as soon as the necessary information was completely gathered.

The 5th, i.e. the application in question, was pending disposal for want of information from the applicant, who is of inferior service and therefore unable to put in petition readily about his service. In this case, 43 years service of the applicant had to be verified; and it could not be done earlier with any degree of accuracy as pay abstracts of some of the years concerned had been unfortunately mislaid, and and were only found after a long laborious search, in the beginning of March last. Immediately after the papers were found, the verification of service was completed and the application forwarded to you on the 5th instant.

I trust you will observe that the delay in this office in the submission of the application was unavoidable.

The 3 months' delay in the Head Asst. Collector's office is probably due to press of work. At same time, this reply is submitted without calling for an explanation from the Head Assistant Collector on the point.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

your most obedient servant,

J. Lawrence
Ag. Collector.
