Despatch from the Right Honorable the EARL OF KIMBERLEY, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Most Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India office, London, 20th March 1884, No. 64 (Financial).

I have considered in Council your letter, dated the 15th of January, No. 5, submitting, for my confirmation, the Proceedings of the Government of Madras, sanctioning the grant of a pension of Rs. 5 a-month to maistry Roya Pillai and a gratuity of Rs. 140 to maistry Thandavamoorthy Mudaliar.

2. These maistries being inferior servants were only eligible for gratuities of 6 months' and 3 months' pay, respectively, under section 117 of the Civil Pension Code, but the Government of Madras held that the nature of their duties was such as to justify grants to them under the rules for superior service, and overlooked the necessity of referring these cases for the decision of the Government of India.

3. It appears to me that the repeated references from the Examiner of Public Works Accounts should have drawn the attention of the Government of Madras to the irregularity of their action in deciding the cases without reference to your Government; but, under the circumstances stated in your letter and its enclosures, I confirm the grant of the pension and gratuity.
