Translation of a Deposition given on the 20th August 1883 on solemn affirmation by Kuppa Naicken

Peon of Palladam Taluq.—

Question. 1. In verifying your services in the Kuzum Record, Pay abstracts for the following months are not forthcoming; viz:—

June, August and September 1838—3.

January, March and August 1839—3.

September 1860—1
7

State in detail when and what posts did you hold during the above period and on what pay?

Answer.— I held the post of a Peon on Rs 3½ in this Taluq in the above months.

Question 2.— Were you suspended or dismissed or were your services dispensed with, or did you obtain leave during the above—

period?

Answer.- I was neither dismissed nor suspended, nor did I obtain leave during the above period. I was continuously in the service during the above period.

Question 3.- Have you any witnesses, who are acquainted with the circumstances mentioned by you above and who served along with you?

Answer.- I have witnesses, who served along with me and who have been pronounced Vigns 1. Bowany Singh. 2. Shaik Moidem and 3. Venkata Naicken of Moyandam palayam. They knew the circumstance. I pray that they may be examined. I heard this read over to me. It is correct according to my statement.

Further examination on the 14th September 1883.-

Question.- What posts did you hold and on what pay in September 1860?

Answer.- I held the post of a Deon in the Palladam Taluk on Rs 5 in September 1860. New scheme was introduced in that month and the Deons were allowed pay at Rs 5.-

Question.- In the deposition given by you on the 20th August last you have stated that you held a post on Rs 3½ in the month of September in question. What is the cause thereof.-

Answer.- As I was on Rs 3½ all along previous to the month of September referred to and as I did not recollect at the time, the circumstances of the pay having been raised in that month, I stated that I was on Rs 3 1/2. It is true that I was on Rs 5 in September in question. —

Translation of a Deposition given on the 21st August 1883 on solemn affirmation by Shaitkh Mohiuddin, a pensioned proin in Palladam Taluk. —

I am now aged 73 years. I held the post of a proin in this Taluk for the last 43 years. It is now 10 years since I applied for pension and retired from the service. I have been receiving a pension ever since. I know the proin Duppa Naick now before the Court. He was appointed a proin 3 years subsequent to my appointment. As I and he live at Palladam and as he served along with me, I know his circumstances well. I can positively state that after his appointment he was in the service in in the months of June, August and September 1838, January, March and August 1839 and September 1860. He was neither dismissed nor suspended in those months. I heard this read

Translation of a Deposition given on the 21st
August 1883, on solemn affirmation by Venkata Naicken of Moyandampaloyam, a pensioned peon in Palladam Taluk. —

I am now aged 69 years. I held the post of a peon in this Taluk for the last 42 years. It is now 8 or 9 years since I resigned and retired from the service. I have been drawing pension ever since. I know the peon Duppa Naicken now before the Court.
He was appointed a peon 2 or 3 years after I was appointed, which he holds from that time up to this period.
I know well since I served along with him. Moreover, I and Duppa Naicken have lived at Palladam for a long time. I know his circumstances.

The said Kuppappa Naicken was neither dismissed nor suspended in the months of June, August and September 1838, January, March and August 1839 and September 1860, when the new system of Police was introduced; subsequent to his appointment I positively state that he was in the service in those months. I heard this read over to me. It is correct according to my statement. The said Kuppappa Naicken was never suspended or dismissed. He has been continuously in the service. I therefore state that he was neither dismissed nor suspended in those months. I heard this read over to me. It is correct according to my statement. - (marked) Venkata Naicken. -
